General Information

Overview

This unit builds on the student's understanding of health promotion by focusing on best practice strategies. These strategies will cover a range of circumstances and settings, including brief individual interventions to the development of national health promotion policy. It is recognised that effective health promotion initiatives generally use a combination of strategies and skills that are founded on theory and research.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student unit survey.

Feedback

Improve the visual quality of recorded lectures as they appear fuzzy.

Recommendation

Provide directions for students in week 1 of the term on how to improve the visual quality of Echo 360 lecture videos.

Feedback from Student unit survey, Unit Coordinator reflection.

Feedback

Many students lacked the skills and knowledge required to complete the final written assessment.

Recommendation

In preparation for their final written assessment, emphasise to students the importance of completing the unit learning materials, including weekly lectures and support sessions from weeks 6 to 10, from early in the term.
