Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

Positive feedback was received in relation to the organisation of the Unit, the learning materials, the assessment exemplars and resources, and the comprehensive feedback provided to students on the assessment. e.g. I appreciated the comments left on assessments. I found the assessment exemplars & resources provided most helpful.

Recommendation

Continue to provide this scope, considering timing of support, and continually monitor how to improve learning & teaching practices.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

Requests for more communication

Recommendation

Review the scheduling and scope of ZOOM sessions to further support the resources made available on Moodle.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

There is a range of student feedback with regard to the assessment items, including a suggestion to incorporate group work.

Recommendation

Continue to review assessment configuration.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Identify and evaluate a number of HRM functions such as human resource planning, recruitment and selection, and employee health and safety
2. Explain how the primary functions of HRM relate to each other and to the broader organisational strategy
3. Discuss the importance of the strategic role that HRM plays in 21st century organisations
4. Analyse contemporary HRM issues including ethical, social, and sustainability issues using relevant HRM concepts and models.

Assessment Tasks

1 Annotated Bibliography and Reflection (INDIVIDUAL)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Purpose

This written assessment is designed to assist students to develop skills in research and analysis in relation to human resource issues and academic referencing.

This assessment task also provides the opportunity for students to enhance their critical thinking and written communication skills.

Task Details

Your task is to compile an Annotated Bibliography in preparation for the Assessment 2 Essay. Identify three (3) academic peer reviewed journal articles relevant to the Assessment 2 Essay topic. One (1) of these journal articles is prescribed and you must use it. You should search the academic literature to identify an additional two (2) academic peer reviewed journal articles published between 2012 and now. It is recommended that you undertake your research via the online 'search' of CQUniversity Library. These additional two (2) journal articles must not be those already provided on the Moodle site.

Provide a brief overview of the main ideas of each of the journal articles. For each journal article you are to write approximately 300 words in total across two paragraphs, which are approximately of equal length. The first paragraph should describe the article and its research, summarising the main ideas, stating the hypothesis (if any), purpose, research methodology (if applicable), and conclusion/results. The second paragraph should identify how you will use the content of the article in relation to your Essay. (These paragraphs must be written in third person.)

Use in text referencing (refer to the CQU APA Referencing Guide)) to support your discussion in each of the paragraphs using the respective journal articles you have identified. You only need to obtain three (3) journal articles for this assessment however you will need additional research for the Assessment 2 essay.

In addition, you are provide a personal reflection in relation to the overall task (approximately 100 words). In this paragraph you are to write a considered personal reflection on the assessment task overall identifying what you have learned by undertaking this task; any challenges; and what you would do differently next time. (The reflection must be written in first person and does not need to be referenced.)

Your Annotated Bibliography should be in the specified format. Please refer to the 'Guide to the Annotated Bibliography' available on the Moodle site.

Please do not commence this Assessment without referring to the Assessment Information provided on the Moodle site.

Penalties for late submission are applied according to the Policy.

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Monday (12 Aug 2019) 11:45 pm AEST

All submissions must be uploaded through the assessment link on the Moodle site. Your submission must be uploaded in Word format as a .doc or .docx file. Do not upload a PDF file.

Return Date to Students

Marks and feedback usually will be returned approximately two (2) working weeks from submission for on-time submissions.

Assessment Criteria

Assessment Item 1 - Marking Criteria for the Annotated Bibliography

Research (15%): Demonstrate research undertaken of the academic literature and identify three (3) academic peer reviewed journal articles in total; identify two (2) academic peer reviewed journal articles published between 2012 and now, in addition to the peer reviewed journal article provided to you, which are relevant to the Assessment 2 essay topic. (Note: if you do not identify an academic peer reviewed journal, you will not receive any marks in relation to that article across the criteria.)

Analysis (45%): Provide a brief overview of the main ideas of each of the journal articles. Clearly evidence how a number of HRM functions link to each other and the broader organisational strategy. For each journal article you are to write approximately 300 words in total across the two paragraphs, which are approximately of equal length. The first paragraph should describe the article and its research, summarising the main ideas, stating the hypothesis, purpose, research methodology (if applicable), and conclusion/results. The second paragraph should identify how you will use the identified article in Assessment 2. Journal articles that do not involve empirical studies also may be used. (These paragraphs must be written in third person.)

Referencing (15%): Reference the journal articles according to the exact detail of the CQU APA Referencing Guide, for the in text referencing and the reference list. The referencing is appropriate and sufficient throughout the paragraphs.

Presentation and Communication (15%): Format as per the guidelines provided on the Moodle site; use clear and concise communication; structure sentences and paragraphs appropriately. Use appropriate language, grammar, spelling (Australian English), and punctuation. Other than the reflection component your analysis paragraphs must be written in third person.

Reflection (10%): Provide a reflection of the task (in approx. 100 words in total), identifying what you have learned by undertaking this task, any challenges, and what you would do differently next time. (The reflection must be written in first person and does not need to be referenced).

2 Academic Essay (INDIVIDUAL)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Purpose

This written assessment is designed to assist students to develop skills in the analysis of human resource issues based on relevant human resource theories and models.

The secondary purpose of this assessment task is to give students the opportunity to enhance their analytical, critical thinking, and written communication skills, particularly in the areas of developing an argument and essay writing.

Description

You are required to research and write an ACADEMIC ESSAY (1600 words +/- 10%). You should establish your argument and provide evidence from your research of academic and other appropriate sources to support your argument. You are expected to engage in extensive research within the academic literature (peer reviewed academic journal articles) relevant to the task and support your argument from scholarly sources. Other sources that make a significant contribution to the analysis may include industry and organisation specific examples.

Task Details

Social networking sites, such as Facebook, and LinkedIn, are used increasingly by organisations to promote themselves as an employer of choice, to identify and attract talent, to enhance communications and to build employee relationships (Smith & Kidder, 2010, as cited in Stone, 2017). Other research (Warner, 2013, as cited in Stone, 2017) suggests that employee access to social media leads to increased collaboration among co-workers, enhanced customer interaction, higher productivity and to making the organisation more attractive to savvy IT talent. In contrast organisations are blocking employee access to social networking sites afraid of a negative impact on productivity.

- Identify and critically discuss three (3) key HRM issues associated with employee use of social networking sites in the workplace setting.
- Critically discuss the HRM implications of the expanding organisational use of social media.

Note: Your essay should incorporate examples from Australian organisations/industries to support your discussion.

Please do not commence this Assessment without referring to the Assessment Information provided on the Moodle site. Penalties for late submission are applied according to the Policy.

Assessment Due Date

Week 8 Monday (9 Sept 2019) 11:45 pm AEST

Assessment Criteria

Assessment Item 2 - Marking Criteria for the Essay

Research (20%): The essay demonstrates extensive research and understanding of the topic. Students should have a minimum of six (6) scholarly references, which must include the prescribed textbook and five (5) relevant academic peer reviewed journals to be eligible for a pass on this criterion [10/20]. The research is used in an integrated manner throughout the essay to support the argument.

Analysis (35%): The essay demonstrates critical analysis of the topic and a clearly integrated and well-developed argument throughout to address all parts of the assessment task. There is clear evidence of how a number of HRM functions link to each other and the broader organisational strategy. The strategic role of HR in 21st century organisations is articulated.

Application of literature/theory (15%): The essay demonstrates application of the relevant concepts, frameworks, and theories in relation to the topic. Specific examples from industry/organisations (Australia and elsewhere as relevant) have been incorporated to highlight application in the real-world setting.

Referencing (5%): The references list and the in-text referencing complies with the exact detail of the CQU APA Referencing Guide. The referencing is appropriate and sufficient throughout the essay.

Presentation (20%): The essay is appropriately structured (introduction, body, and conclusion) with no headings, has relevant information order and flow, paragraphs are used effectively, and includes a well-formulated introduction and conclusion.

Communication (5%): The essay uses clear and concise communication, appropriate language, grammar, spelling (Australian English), and punctuation.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
