General Information

Overview

Organisations are facing a crisis in productivity and global business competition which is threatening their very existence in the market. Coupled with this challenge is the demand that organisations deliver an increased quality of work life to employees and comply with an intricate and complex set of laws, regulations and court decisions. This unit provides you with an introduction to human resource management (HRM), and to frameworks and models that explain the core functions of HRM such as planning, recruitment, development, reward and motivating employees. In this unit, you will examine how human resources functions, strategies, and practices help an organisation to perform efficiently and effectively, and assist organisations to achieve a sustained competitive advantage. You will also examine the role of HRM in diverse organisations and different cultural contexts to understand what constitutes ethical human resource management.

Recommendation

Despite the unprecedented situation of COVID-19 pandemic, the students have shown an excellent effort. Perhaps, more time at home helped students to study online and put more effort into their assignments. During this 2020 pandemic, we worked together as a team. We tried our best to ensure all the possible support to our students through the HRMT20024 Moodle platform and additional online and recorded class/tutorial interactions. We were more concerned about the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic issues and provided all our best help and support to our students. Moreover, we emphasised on the online presentation sessions (Assessment 1) to get maximum students as an audience to not only follow the presentations also help them to comprehend the presented journal articles linked to their weekly lecture topics (over the 4-12 weeks). Therefore, it is recommended to continue the team effort to ensure maximum support and engagement for HRMT20024 in future terms as well.
