

HRMT20028 Organisational Change Management

Term 2 - 2018

Profile information current as at 19/04/2024 12:35 pm

All details in this unit profile for HRMT20028 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

To survive in an increasingly competitive and dynamic environment, managers need to create innovative, change-ready organisations that are able to thrive and maximise their performance. This unit develops an understanding of organisational change, its antecedents, and its management and evaluation. Based on the concepts of strategic alignment, students examine organisational change from multiple frames or perspectives, at the organisational level. This unit critically examines organisational change and development aspects in its different forms and change management strategies for creating and sustaining innovative organisations. The unit seeks to develop diagnostic and prescriptive skills in relation to the management of organisational change while also encouraging the adoption of a critical perspective of the field. If you have successfully completed the unit HRMT20019 you should not enrol in this unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

2 Literature Review

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The assignment must be submitted via the unit Moodle site by 11:45pm AEST, week 6, Monday 20 August, 2018. It can be submitted as either a word or pdf document.

Objective

The literature review provides the opportunity to enhance your research, critical analysis and written communication skills, particularly in identifying the issues and concepts of importance to managing change in organisations.

Task

The assessment requires you to undertake review of literature about organisational change. Organisations experience change due to many internal and external pressures. You are required to undertake review of literature using five guided questions below. It is important that you do not copy and paste text from various sources. You need to read various sources and write the assessment using your own words.

1. What internal and external factors play an important role in driving organisational change?
2. What role does senior management and line managers play in facilitating and implementing change?
3. What are some of the common causes of resistance to change?
4. What steps should organisations implement to ensure effective change process?
5. What strategies could organisations implement to ensure a change capable culture?

A minimum of 15 academic papers should be part of your literature review. Media articles, news from magazines are not part of academic papers. Refer to Moodle site for more information on the structure of assessment.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Monday (20 Aug 2018) 11:45 pm AEST

All assignments must be submitted through the Moodle unit website. No email submission is accepted under any circumstances, please contact IT Help Desk if you have difficulty accessing the Moodle site.

Assessment Criteria

A marking rubric which expands upon the following criteria will be available on Moodle.

Critical analysis of research that compares and contrasts relevant and appropriate literature (10 marks)

Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to the topic (9 marks)

Understanding of the impact of internal and external environmental forces (9 marks)

Use of a minimum of 15 references (3 marks)

Appropriate use of the APA referencing system in-text and in the reference list (2 marks)

Appropriate essay structure and conventions of academic writing (2 marks)

These are the minimum requirements. Students should note that satisfactorily meeting the minimum requirements will typically result in the minimum pass grade being awarded.

As Masters students you are required to engage in research as per the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) guidelines. Two specific requirements need to be considered. 1. Students need to demonstrate “a body of knowledge that includes the understanding of recent developments in a discipline and/or area of professional practice, and 2. Students must demonstrate “knowledge of research principles and methods applicable to a field of work and/or learning”.

Your attention is drawn to the University’s stated position on plagiarism. THE WORK OF OTHERS, WHICH IS INCLUDED IN THE ASSIGNMENT MUST BE ATTRIBUTED TO ITS SOURCE (a full list of references must be submitted as part of the assessment).

3 Individual Case Study Report

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The assignment must be submitted via the unit Moodle site by 11:45pm AEST, week 12, Monday 1 October, 2018. It can be submitted as either a word or pdf document.

Objective

The primary purpose of this assessment is to assist you to develop skills in the use of change processes and management theories and models in the analysis of a business situation that has organisation and structural change and development concerns. The assignment requires you to analyse the current situation, and suggest practical and probable solutions. The secondary purpose of this assignment is to give you the opportunity to apply your research, analysis, critical thinking and written communication skills, particularly the ability to write an organisational analysis report.

Task

The assessment requires you to examine an organisational case study. The chosen organisation is Australia Post. The case study is selected due to various changes and reforms implemented in the company. Students are required to undertake the following before undertaking this assessment:

1. read and analyse the most recent annual report of the company. The annual report outlines the organisations performance in various areas, challenges, organisational strategy, and governance arrangements
2. read and review internal news releases of the company related to its performance, leadership and changes (see assessment guideline on Moodle site which has examples of 3 selected news). Other Australia Post news can be accessed on news releases. Students are welcome to review other documents available on company website to understand their performance and contributing factors
3. read about and analyse Australia Post and other organisations on changes and reforms from external media sources

(e.g. Newspaper/magazine), and academic journals.

Once you have read and analysed the above, then you are required to prepare a report which analyses the following questions/topics.

- a) Outline key changes and reforms implemented by Australian Post
- b) Discuss driving factors that contributed to the reforms
- c) Identify people development strategies implemented by Australian Post to overcome any resistance to change
- d) How Australia Post has aligned its future strategies to manage change and innovation to lead in global business environment?
- e) What lessons have you learnt after analysing the Australia Post case study?

Students are welcome to outline their views, ideas or perception, however it needs to be supported by academic literature. A minimum of 15 academic papers should be part of your literature review. Reference to the corporate or strategic plan and other corporate documents is in addition to the 15 academic papers.

Refer to Moodle site for details on the structure of the report.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Monday (1 Oct 2018) 11:45 pm AEST

All assignments must be submitted through Moodle site. No email submission is accepted under any circumstances, please contact IT Help Desk if you have difficulty accessing Moodle site.

Return Date to Students

Please note that this is the final assessment item for this unit and as such marks will not be released until after the certification of grades. Students will be notified of release date on the unit Moodle site.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
