Assessment Tasks

1 Drawing on forum postings and scholarly readings, describe and discuss two contemporary issues arising out of settler colonialism that impact on Indigenous people as per the task description

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Part A: You must post at least 3 discussion board postings on the forum over 3- 5 weeks. Each posting must contain two things: your reflection on the week AND how at least one reference influenced or developed your thinking on that weekly topic. One of these three posts must be a response to a unit peer/s- a peer who impressed or influenced your thoughts in their writing and reference they provided. Each post must explain how you were influenced and how/why the reference posted influenced your thinking.

Part B: Using references you used on forum and other scholarly references you have found or your peers found, write an essay that identifies and discusses two contemporary issues arising out of the impact of settler colonialism on Indigenous people (approximately 725 words each contemporary issue). Write a conclusion that reflects your considered ethical position on the interplay of settler colonialism and the contemporary Indigenous issues. You may draw on your postings or those of others to support your ethical view. (Your ethical view will be informed by scholarship and developed on your learning journey from your reading (cite references) and reflection. Include all references you have cited (minimum 5 references). The word limits to each section are suggestions

- Intro: what is settler-colonialism (guide 250 words)

- First contemporary issue (state the issue, describe and discuss issue & how settler-colonialism influenced this); (guide about 725 words)

- Second contemporary issue (state the issue & describe and discuss issue how settler-colonialism influenced this); (guide about 725 words)

- Conclusion & evaluation of your learning journey (guide about 300 words)

You must submit your essay with the cover sheet and rubric AND, as an appendix, a copy of your forum postings.

Word length: 2000 words.

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

CHOICE 1: Take two topics from weeks 6- 11 and describe and discuss these issues with reference to unit content and theory, including colonialism/settler-colonialism, racism and sovereignty/restorative justice:

The purpose of this written assignment is to demonstrate your knowledge, understanding and critical reflection on these two contemporary Indigenous issues (week 6- 11) in the context of the content and theory (colonialism/settler-colonialism, racism and sovereignty/restorative justice) in the unit. You may draw on understandings and readings presented in Weeks 1-11 of the unit (as you see relevant) and those readings you have identified as relevant. Write a conclusion that reflects your considered ethical and intellectual position on these contemporary Indigenous issues. You may provide some small quotes from your postings or those of peers in this assessment to support other scholarly academic references or you may choose not to use such personal quotes. (Your ethical view will demonstrate how it is informed by scholarship and how it developed on your learning journey from your reading (cite references) and reflection. Include all references you have cited (minimum 5 references).

Word length: 2,000 words (references are not counted in the word count).

Alternative Choice (ONLY DO 1)

1. Treaty & Makarrata: a critical and ethical consideration (see task description).

Task description

Indigenous Australians have never ceded their sovereignty. Briefly outline Indigenous Australians proposal for a treaty and political representation.

Then critically reflect (using scholarly sources) on:

the enduring impact of 'settler colonialism' on contemporary Indigenous issues;

Indigenous Australians struggle for human rights, including cultural rights (e.g. UN declarations) and cultural rights;

Indigenous Australians ongoing contribution to the nation-state of Australia.

Conclude with a critical and ethical reflection on Indigenous peoples' proposal for a treaty and political representation.

CHOICE 2:

2. Treaty & Makarrata: a critical and ethical consideration (see task description).

Task description

Indigenous Australians have never ceded their sovereignty. Briefly outline the Indigenous Australians proposal for a treaty and political representation.

Then critically reflect (using scholarly sources) on:

the enduring impact of 'settler colonialism' on contemporary Indigenous issues;

Indigenous Australians struggle for human rights and restorative justice (e.g. UN declarations on Rights/cultural rights of Indigenous people);

Conclude with a critical and ethical reflection on Indigenous peoples' proposal for a treaty and political representation and your informed view of restorative justice.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
