Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Using references from scholarly literature in this unit or elsewhere in your research, write an academic essay that identifies and discusses two contemporary issues arising out of the impact of settler colonialism on First Nations people (approximately 725 words for each contemporary issue). Write a conclusion which sums up your two chosen issues and their impact. Below is a suggested guide to organise your essay:

- Your introduction: Outline what is settler-colonialism, and state the two issues you have chosen to write about; (250 words)
- First contemporary issue (state the issue, describe and discuss the issue and how settler-colonialism influenced this); (725 words)
- Second contemporary issue (state the issue and describe and discuss the issue and how settler-colonialism influenced this); (725 words)
- Conclusion provide a summary of what you have written; (300 words).

Post your reflection on your essay to the Discussion Forum. This is your personal reflection, it does not have a word limit and does not specifically attract marks. Share with others how you are feeling about what you have written in your essay and how you are feeling about the unit content. This is also a requirement of your assignment and marks will be deducted if your discussion post is not attached to the back of your assignment.

Word length: 2000 words.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
