2 Written Research Assignment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Task

For this assessment task students are required to write a 2000 - 2500 word written assignment.

Topic

Miles Davis (or groups led by Davis) recorded several albums that stand out in the history of jazz as 'seminal recordings'. Three such albums are acknowledged as pioneering developments of new jazz sub-styles and are heralded as some of the most influential jazz recordings ever produced.

- Cool Jazz: 'Birth of the Cool' ushered in a transition towards a bebop influenced, yet 'cool' sounding jazz.
- Modal Jazz: 'Kind of Blue' steered jazz away from the frenetic sounds of bebop and complex chord progressions, towards a simpler, modal based music.
- Fusion: 'Bitches Brew' was a full-blown announcement that jazz had moved in the direction of technologically manipulated music, fusing jazz elements with rock instrumentation, among other things.

Task Description

Choose one sub-style from those provided (above) and discuss the significance of this recording by providing:

- A brief biographical introduction to Miles Davis.
- A historic overview of the chosen sub-style (Cool Jazz, Modal Jazz or Fusion), including an analysis of the musical, social and political influences.
- A summary of the performance practises associated with the chosen sub-style (instrumentation, size of ensemble, common performance elements etc).
- Background information on the associated album (Birth of the Cool, Kind of Blue or Bitches Brew). Such information may include the recording process, composer/arranger information etc.
- Background information on the musicians who recorded on the album and their contribution to the recording itself.
- A musical analysis of the individual song associated with each recording (Birth of the Cool: Boplicity, Kind of Blue: So What, Bitches Brew: Pharaoh's Dance).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
