

JOUR12010 Feature Writing

Term 2 - 2020

Profile information current as at 23/04/2024 10:26 pm

All details in this unit profile for JOUR12010 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit develops advanced journalism writing skills. It covers research, editorial and column writing, and techniques for profiles and human interest features. Students will produce several features for assessment.

Details

Career Level: Undergraduate

Unit Level: Level 2

Credit Points: 6

Student Contribution Band: 10

Fraction of Full-Time Student Load: 0.125

Pre-requisites or Co-requisites

Prerequisite: COMM11007 or JOUR 12039.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure \(Higher Education Coursework\).

Offerings For Term 2 - 2020

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Class Timetable

Regional Campuses

Bundaberg, Cairns, Emerald, Gladstone, Mackay, Rockhampton, Townsville

Metropolitan Campuses

Adelaide, Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth, Sydney

Assessment Overview

1. Written Assessment

Weighting: Pass/Fail

2. Written Assessment

Weighting: 40%

3. Written Assessment

Weighting: 60%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

- Grades and Results Policy

Schedule

Week 1 - Introduction to Feature Writing - 13 Jul 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson provides a general introduction to feature writing. By the end of the lesson, you should be able to describe the distinguishing aspects of writing feature stories as opposed to other types of writing, and name the core elements of a good feature story.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 2 - Planning your Feature - 20 Jul 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson examines the structure of a feature article, and how it is different from other types of news writing. By the end of this lesson, you should be able to define the structure of a basic feature article, identify whether an article has structural flaws, and create a basic plan for your feature article.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 3 - Identifying the Market for your Feature - 27 Jul 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will provide some basic background information to help you identify a market for your feature. By the end of the lesson, you should be able to discuss some of the identifying characteristics that suggest a potential market for your feature.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 4 - Research: Getting Started - 03 Aug 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will emphasise the importance of research to the feature writing process. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to identify appropriate research sources and develop a basic plan for feature research.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.	Assessment One - Feature Story Idea Pitches Due Friday Week 4 (Friday 7 August, 2020 17:00pm AEST)  Assessment Item 1 - Ideas Pitch Due: Week 4 Friday (7 Aug 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Week 5 - Research: Conducting Interviews - 10 Aug 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will provide an overview of the journalistic interview, which provides the foundations which most feature articles are built. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to explain some techniques and considerations when planning and conducting an interview which is intended for use in your feature.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Vacation Week - 17 Aug 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
--------------	---------	------------------------------

Week 6 - Feature Styles: Narrative - 24 Aug 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will provide an overview of narrative features. By the end of the lesson, you will be able to discuss general of narrative writing within the journalistic genre, and the best methods by which to obtain relevant information to incorporate into your narrative piece.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 7 - Feature Styles: News - 31 Aug 2020

--------------	---------	------------------------------

This lesson will provide an overview of the news-based feature. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to define the characteristics and describe the structure of a news oriented feature.

See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 8 - Feature Styles: Opinion - 07 Sep 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will discuss opinion pieces, reviews, and editorials. By the end of the lesson, you should be able to identify the defining characteristics of opinion pieces, reviews, and editorials, and discuss some of the important considerations for a writer of potential opinion-based feature articles.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.	Assessment Two Narrative Feature (Profile) Due Monday Week (Monday, 7 September 2020 11:45PM AEST)  Assessment Item 2 - Narrative Feature (Human Interest - Personal Profile) Due: Week 8 Monday (7 Sept 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Week 9 - Structuring your Feature - 14 Sep 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will describe feature structures. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to describe narrative techniques that support your writing so that your feature is high impact, provoking an emotive response from the reader.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 10 - Editing your Feature - 21 Sep 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will discuss the importance of editing your work. By the end of the lesson you will be able to describe techniques that will assist editing your work so that it is accurate, well-written, and effective as a piece of journalistic writing	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 11 - Packaging your Feature - 28 Sep 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will discuss some of the complementary aspects of feature articles, such as photograph captioning, tables, infographics, and headings. By the end of this lesson, you should be able to describe some of different techniques used to support feature article presentation.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Week 12 - Extending your Writing - 05 Oct 2020

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
This lesson will provide an overview of alternative forms of feature writing. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to define and describe advertorial, discuss options for feature writing within a business rather than journalistic sense, and ways to extend your feature within a multimedia context.	See the Study Guide Lesson for associated readings.

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment Item 1 - Ideas Pitch

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

This assessment requires you to pitch your ideas for the two feature stories you are required to write this term (Assessment Items 2 and 3) so you can receive feedback on your approach.

You should review the requirements for your features in Assessment 2 and 3, and identify target publications and associated audiences; justify your story ideas in relation to current public discourse (why are they interesting to an audience, and why now?); and present evidence of planning, such as what you are going to do and when.

The two feature stories are different, so your pitch should deal with each feature article separately.

As a writer, you need to ask yourself some hard questions first, and that's the purpose of this assessment. A good proposal will sell your idea for a story. Your pitch should address the questions an editor would consider when deciding whether to publish your article, such as: Why would I want to publish this article? Why is it of interest to my readers? What's unique about this story?

Specifically, your pitch for each feature should consider the following:

- The news value or interest of this person or topic (why is he/she/it interesting to a reader?);
- The relevance of this story to current public discourse (why is it current for a reader?);
- The aim of the article (what will/should/may readers learn?);
- Your ideas about what you as a writer need to know about the person/subject before proceeding;
- Your interpretation of the theme (why did you choose the theme, and why is it interesting to you as a writer) - Feature 2 only;
- Intended publication and style, and why this type of article would suit that publication.

You also need to think about how you plan to complete the feature, and should include information about:

- Sources
  - List of proposed interviewees (primary sources) and mode of interviewing.
  - Names and status of proposed interviewees.
  - List of proposed secondary sources.
- Time frame
  - List the proposed research, interview and writing tasks and a suggested timeline for each feature.
  - Proposed structure (provide brief details of planned structure)

Pitch presentation

There are two parts to presenting your pitch.

1) Pitch outline: Develop a very short PowerPoint presentation with a 5-10 minute voice over. The presentation will be no more than five slides (intro slide + two slides Ass 2 Feature + two slides Ass 3 Feature). The purpose of this pitch is to sell your story to your targeted publication. Consider why your story would be ideal for the publication. Why would your article appeal to their readers? Why might your story be unique? Does your target publication have specific submission guidelines - how have you addressed them? (Some supplementary materials will be provided on Moodle in the opening weeks of the unit to assist.)

Justification of approach: Editors rarely accept unsolicited manuscripts. The ability to identify a story idea, summarise it, and articulate it in a way that generates interest is a critical skill for feature writers. The more effort you put into your pitch, the more guidance you will be able to get from teaching staff. The requirement to submit only four slides is deliberate; it is to encourage you to be succinct in your writing, and clear with your ideas.

Changing your Mind: Remember that this is a pitch of intent. Depending on feedback, you may change your mind about your feature, in terms of topic or approach. You will not be required to submit another formal pitch, but will need to discuss your ideas with teaching staff.

Drafts/Ideas: No private drafting/discussion will be allowed, but we are happy to engage with you if you want to confirm that you are on the right track or discuss your ideas prior to completing your pitch. Submit your questions or discussion to the Q&A forum. We don't review drafts privately in this course because a) students need to learn to be confident to engage with ideas publicly, and b) students benefit from learning about what others are doing, and seeing our feedback.

Assessment Due Date

Week 4 Friday (7 Aug 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Your proposals must be submitted at the end of Week 4 through Moodle.

Return Date to Students

Vacation Week Friday (21 Aug 2020)

Feedback will be provided on your proposal ASAP to ensure students can start on the next assessments.

Weighting

Pass/Fail

Assessment Criteria

This is a Pass/Fail assessment.

To pass, students need to submit a pitch outline and 'sell' their work to the unit coordinator.

- News value or interest of this subject is clearly established and appropriate
- Relationship to current public discourse is clearly established and well-considered
- Target publication and audience is identified
- Aim of the article and what it seeks to achieve in audience response is clear
- Evidence of future planning is evident

Students who do not demonstrate limited attention to the requirements of the task will Fail this assessment. They will be required to resubmit this assignment until they receive a Pass grade to be allowed to proceed to Assessment 2 and 3.

Referencing Style

- American Psychological Association 7th Edition \(APA 7th edition\)

Submission

Online

Submission Instructions

You must submit a PowerPoint outline and voiceover through Moodle.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Critique and discuss feature article genre, audience, and nature of publication.
- Apply appropriate news criteria when using news-gathering skills to address news and current affairs in a feature writing context.

Graduate Attributes

- Communication
- Critical Thinking

2 Assessment Item 2 - Narrative Feature (Human Interest - Personal Profile)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Your task is to write a personal profile on someone whose work or life is of current interest.

This profile must include a personal interview with the main subject of the feature, as well as interviews of family/friends/work colleagues/peers that provide some alternative perspectives of your subject.

You may interview someone you know, but this person has to be someone of potential interest to another reader.

You are not able to be the subject of the personal profile, and you are not able to 'interview yourself'.

The article must:

- (a) Present the person in a way that expands public knowledge and demonstrates application of news values (ie. reveals new information or takes a new angle on a person, or highlights a current issue through a personality profile);
- (b) Demonstrate research in support of the subject. Primary and secondary source material must be referenced and acknowledged appropriately;

(c) Be written in a way that attracts and sustains reader interest; and

(d) Provide a list of full contact details of interviewees including telephone numbers and addresses.

Feature Pitch Letter and Interview Notes

You will be required to include a short pitch letter to the editor of the intended publication, telling the editor about the article and why this feature is interesting to the publication's target audience. You may use some of the information you prepared as part of your proposal.

You will also need to submit your interview notes (or transcript) with your feature article as an appendix..

Length: You will submit one word/PDF file for this assessment that contains:

- Feature Article (1200 - 1500 words)
- Feature Pitch Letter (150 - 200 words)
- Transcripts (no word length)

Drafts: Students are expected to share their drafts or sections of writing via the unit discussion forum, and all students are encouraged to share their constructive opinion and ideas on one another's work. Feedback is therefore public and assists all students. No private drafts will be accepted.

NOTE: Our ultimate aim is to help you get your work published. Think of someone locally whose profile might be of interest to your local paper, or a young emerging sport person whose profile might be of interest to a specialist publication. In the past, we've had local personalities, tattoo artists, and beer brewers featured in local newspapers as examples. You could feature a local emerging band/artist/athlete; highlight the work of a volunteer who is a bit unusual; or tease out the human interest side of a high profile business person. Remember, EVERYONE has an interesting story - it's our job to find out about it and decide whether it's of interest to a wider audience.

Assessment Due Date

Week 8 Monday (7 Sept 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Submit as a single word document through Moodle.

Return Date to Students

Week 10 Monday (21 Sept 2020)

Usually within two weeks of submission.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

A marking rubric will be available on the unit website, but the criteria upon which this profile will be assessed are:

- Application of news values
- Use of sources
- Quality of writing
- Referencing

Referencing Style

- American Psychological Association 7th Edition \(APA 7th edition\)

Submission

Online

Submission Instructions

Submit all documents in one file.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Exercise advanced journalistic writing skills and research techniques to produce feature material.
- Critique and discuss feature article genre, audience, and nature of publication.
- Apply appropriate news criteria when using news-gathering skills to address news and current affairs in a feature writing context.

Graduate Attributes

- Communication
- Critical Thinking
- Information Literacy
- Information Technology Competence
- Cross Cultural Competence

- Ethical practice

3 Assessment Item 3 - News Feature (News Issue)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Your task for this is to write one news issue-based feature article.

We set themes as starting points for your writing, as experience in this unit has taught us that many students often struggle to generate ideas. The themes for this term are:

- Going green
- In my own voice
- Fringe dwellers
- Starting over

You are able to take a loose interpretation. For example, an article based on the theme 'Fringe dwellers' could examine issues associated with being an artist in a regional town, being disabled in the workplace, or being a refugee trying to settle in a new place. An article on the theme 'Starting over' could look at issues associated with finding a new job after the COVID-19 pandemic, starting again after divorce, or getting healthier after a heart attack. 'In my own voice' might look at issues associated with indigenous health, again COVID-19 may apply here. 'Going green' may examine the shift towards more sustainable lifestyles or 're-wilding'. It's entirely up to you to think about how you might interpret a theme. You should consider what would be of interest to an editor in October or November this year if you wish to aim for publication.

Whatever you decide to write about needs to expand public knowledge. For example, if you're going to cover refugee settlement in a regional area as a subject on the theme of 'Fringe dwellers', you will need to think about a way of writing the story that tells us something we don't already know. You will learn about how to do this in the course of the term. You must clearly state the theme you're addressing in your pitch and on the cover page of your submission.

Writing your feature

You must research and write a feature story that includes reference to at least three (3) separate personal interviews (no more than five), and conduct primary and secondary research in support of your interviews.

Your feature must:

(a) Present a specific issue in a way that expands public knowledge about an issue of current importance in public discourse (ie. hasn't been done before or is unique in its approach);

(b) Demonstrate significant research in support of the subject. Primary and secondary source material must be referenced and acknowledged appropriately;

(c) Be written in a way that attracts and sustains reader interest; and

(d) Provide a list of full contact details of interviewees including telephone numbers and addresses.

This is not an essay-style feature, nor is it an opinion-based feature. You are to write a news-based feature, informed by research. This could be softer style news - it doesn't need to be an investigative piece, but it does need to 'reveal' something and include sources. The way you write the feature will be informed by content you have learned in the unit.

Feature Pitch Letter and Notes

You will be required to include a short pitch letter to the editor of the intended publication, telling the editor about the article and why this feature is interesting to the publication's target audience.

You will also need to submit your interview notes (or transcript) with your feature article as an appendix.

Secondary sources should be referenced.

Length

You will submit one file for this assessment that includes:

- Feature Article (1800 - 2200 words)
- Feature Pitch Letter (200 words)
- Transcript notes

Drafts: Students are expected to share their drafts or sections of writing via the relevant discussion forum, and all students are encouraged to share their constructive opinion and ideas on one another's work. Feedback is therefore public and assists all students. No private drafts will be accepted.

NOTE: You may come up with your own theme or topic in consultation with the Unit Coordinator if you are or would like to work on a real commission or idea. Again, as with Assessment 1, we would like to see you publish your work if you can. Think of a local issue your local newspaper might like explored in more depth. Aim high - you never know where you might end up!

Assessment Due Date

Review/Exam Week Monday (12 Oct 2020) 12:00 pm AEST

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
