

JOUR12039 News Writing and Reporting

Term 1 - 2023

Profile information current as at 27/09/2024 01:40 pm

All details in this unit profile for JOUR12039 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

News Writing and Reporting is designed to extend and develop the knowledge and skills gained in Media Writing. The exercises and assignments provide instruction and practice in news writing and news-gathering for print, online, and broadcast environments. Students will actively engage with their local community, reporting on events and community organisations, local courts, municipal councils and local political issues. Students will also engage with contemporary media issues that impact on news writing, such as ethics, law, representation and ownership.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Head of Course review

Feedback

The assessment items are practical written assessments with a news journalism focus. Although the topics change from year to year, the style of assessment has remained unchanged.

Recommendation

Undertake a review of the assessments to ensure they remain industry relevant, especially in relation to the manner in which they are prepared and submitted.

Journalism as an industry continues to change, and this unit needs to reflect those changes.

Recommendation

Undertake a review of the learning resources and e-reading list to ensure material is current and up-to-date.

Feedback from Head of Course review

Feedback

The structure and navigability of the Moodle site is excellent.

Recommendation

Maintain structure and navigability of the Moodle site.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Pitch newsworthy topics for different news writing genres
2. Apply appropriate news criteria when using news-gathering skills to address news and current affairs in a general news writing context
3. Write industry standard news articles in a variety of niche journalism genres
4. Produce a publishable news article in a specialist genre such as broadcast or feature
5. Reflect on news gathering and writing practice in a contemporary media environment.

Assessment Tasks

1 Genre Selection and Pitch

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Submit an initial 300-500 word pitch for Assessment Three. You will select ONE genre from the options below:

- Broadcast (1min 30 seconds) Prepare and write a broadcast quality script for a television news story on a contemporary newsworthy issue in-line with industry standards including correct format, professional shot-listing and at least three credible talent.
- Long-form feature article: Produce a 2,000 word feature article on a contemporary newsworthy topic in-line with industry standards including correct structure, grammar and punctuation and at least three credible talent.

Your pitch will include why you have selected that genre, referencing the work of professional journalists/ media outlets to justify your decision.

You will outline your topic and justify why it is newsworthy, referencing credible sources including the dominant news values that apply.

Your pitch will also include a list of at least three credible talent. You are not interviewing mum and dad for this unit. This is an advanced unit and your proposed talent must be credible, or you will fail the assessment.

A good tip is to also include a rough timeline of when you intend to interview your talent as this will take some planning. It will provide you with a schedule which will help you better manage your time.

To pass you will need to address all of the elements of the assessment including credible references where necessary to justify and cite your sources. You need to pass this assessment to progress to the next assessment and pass the unit overall.

NOTE: WORD COUNT for written assignments

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Assessment Criteria

To pass you will need to address all of the elements of the assessment including credible references where necessary to justify and cite your sources.

Students who demonstrate limited attention to the requirements of the task will Fail this assessment.

They will be required to resubmit this assignment until they receive a Pass grade to be allowed to proceed to Assessment Two and Three.

Elements that will be assessed include:

- News value or interest of this subject is clearly established and appropriate
- Quality / credibility of proposed talent
- Aim of the article and what it seeks to achieve is clear
- Evidence of future planning is evident

2 News Stories + Portfolio

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

This assessment requires you to research, write, and review three (3) news stories that demonstrate quality in news writing and reporting. The required stories are as follows:

1. Hard news story (350 words)

This is based on provided material available on the Moodle site. (CQ Day of Action)

2. Sports story (350 words)

Attend and report on a sporting event. Your story must include quotes from interviews with a coach and a player. (350 words)

3. Council or Court story (350 words)

Write a news article based on a meeting of your local Shire or Regional Council, or a report from a local court. Your report must include quotes from sources. This will require you to attend a Council meeting (online or in person) or a court case.

Your stories will be initially submitted as drafts, which will allow teaching staff to provide feedback on where you can improve and ensure your articles are in line with industry standards including:

- Strong lead paragraphs incorporating the 5Ws and H
- Correct tense and punctuation
- Credible talent
- Inverted pyramid structure

Submission of stories as drafts.

You will be required to submit Story 1 by Friday of Week 3; Story 2 by Friday of Week 5; and Story 3 by Friday of Week 6.

This is so we can assess your drafts and provide feedback early in the unit. You may elect to submit earlier but will need to advise your teaching staff when you submit.

- Original submissions will be made via the Moodle site.
- You must retain copies of your original drafts as you will also include these to illustrate improvement when you submit your portfolio at the end of the unit.

Portfolio

At the end of term, you will compile your stories as a single portfolio (Word document). This portfolio will comprise:

- A title page
- a Table of Contents
- 6 stories (your original and final version of each story)
- a short description of what you did to improve each article in response to feedback (2 paragraphs).

The portfolio should be structured as follows:

- Story 1:
Version 1
Final Version
Response to Feedback
- Story 2
Version 1
Final Version
Response to Feedback
- Story 3
Version 1
Final Version
Response to Feedback

Further guidance on this assessment will be provided on the Moodle site.

3 Broadcast / Feature Article and Reflection

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Following your assessment one pitch, you will submit your final article for the unit:

- Broadcast (1min 30 - 2 minutes seconds) Prepare and write a broadcast quality script for a television news story on a contemporary newsworthy issue in-line with industry standards including correct format, professional shot-listing and at least three credible talent. A script template is provided on the Moodle site.
- Long-form feature article: Research and write a 2,000 word feature article on a contemporary newsworthy topic in-line with industry standards including correct structure, grammar and punctuation and at least three credible talent.

You will also submit a 1,500 - 2,000 word reflection of your news gathering process for writing a broadcast or feature article. You will justify how you addressed journalistic principles when writing your news article. Your reflection will explain where improvements could have been made with reference to the unit content. You may include references to other credible news sites to justify your arguments and where you feel enhancements could be made. You may choose to demonstrate how you would approach the same story with a different angle and include an alternative lead paragraph/s. This assessment is designed to develop your ability to self-reflect and constantly improve your craft, which is essential for even the most experienced media professionals. This assessment must include academic referencing.

NOTE: WORD COUNT for written assignments

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
