Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

Students commended the recorded master classes and accompanying resources each week.

Recommendation

Unit Coordinator to increase additional resources to support recordings to assist students who wish to attain higher levels of critical analysis in the assessment items and to add further contemporary law in action items.

Feedback

The assignment and take home advice video sessions were commended.

Recommendation

Unit Coordinator to improve these practices with the assessment items by way of additional relevant resources such as the provision of an appropriate website of a federal regulator and legal guidelines for businesses.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Assessment Tasks

1 Assignment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Part A: Case Analysis

You will be required to read a case and answer a number of questions relating to it. The case can be accessed at the Australian Legal Information Institute (www.austlii.edu.au). Most of the answers can be taken from the case but you may also do further research or refer to lecture materials in your assessment.

Part B: Legal problem questions

You will be required to identify the legal issue(s), demonstrate your understanding of introductory contract and consumer law concepts, and support your arguments with legal principles, statutes and cases.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Wednesday (23 Dec 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

The policy for extensions of time will be strictly enforced. Late submissions will attract a penalty of 2 marks per day. Extension applications must be made through Moodle and supported by evidence.

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (15 Jan 2021)

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

The objective of Part A Case Analysis is to present an authentic case for you to analyse, understand the legal issues and arguments from both parties and recognise how those issues impact real life situations. You will be assessed against the following criteria for Part A:

- Accuracy of understanding of facts
- Relevance of responses to questions asked
- Application of legal knowledge gained from the case
- Critical thinking aimed at applying the law to real life situations

The objective of Part B Legal Problem Questions is to develop your ability to apply contractual and consumer law principles to hypothetical situations to make an informed analysis and to resolve legal issues with the support from cases and statutes. You will be assessed against the following criteria for Part B:

- Identification of the legal issues
- Identification of legal rules and support from case law and statutes
- Identification of material relevant facts
- Cogency of arguments for and against both parties
- Demonstration of a reasoned conclusion

2 Take Home Paper

Assessment Type

Take Home Exam

Task Description

The take-home paper will be released on Moodle. It must be completed and submitted within 24 hours in one MS Word document via the relevant upload link on Moodle. The task will require you to identify legal issues, explain legislation and case law and apply the law to the facts to support your arguments. The paper will be comprised of two parts - Part A and Part B. Part A will be worth 20 marks and will be comprised of short-answer questions testing your knowledge of the unit. Part B will be worth 40 marks and will be comprised of longer questions of a problem or essay type.

Assessment Due Date

The release date for the take-home paper will be set by the School and will be during the examination period. You will be informed of the date during the term.

Return Date to Students

Marks for the take-home paper will be released on certification of grades.

Weighting

60%

Assessment Criteria

The criteria for assessment of your attempt at the take-home paper will be:-

1. Knowledge and understanding of the law;
2. Understanding of the issues raised by the facts or by the problem scenario;
3. Application of the law to the facts;
4. Professional presentation of your work.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
