

LAWS11057 Introduction to Law

Term 1 - 2022

Profile information current as at 26/04/2024 02:33 am

All details in this unit profile for LAWS11057 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to the study of law by examining the history out of which our law developed and examining how the law responds to the socio-legal conditions of our time. It provides you with an awareness of the institutions which are created by the law and how those institutions shape the development of the law. You will be introduced to the notion of legal reasoning: distinguishing the 'dicta' and 'obiter' of cases, precedent theory, case analysis, following and distinguishing precedent; as well as distinguishing between primary and delegated legislation. This unit introduces you to legal discourse and the conventions of the discipline which will provide a foundation for study in more advanced units.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback and self-reflection

Feedback

Integrate additional IRAC content

Recommendation

As problem-solving skills are key to both the capstone assessment in this unit, and students' progression in legal education and careers, provide additional support regarding, and examples of, IRAC problem-solving methods.

Feedback from Student feedback and self-reflection

Reduce quiz access requirements

Recommendation

To enhance flexibility in learning, and support all learners in the unit, remove requirement to post in Moodle Forums before accessing quizzes

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of the Australian legal system, rules of law, precedent, and how law is made and developed in Australia.
2. Apply the principles of statutory interpretation, case analysis, and professional ethical responsibility.
3. Conduct legal research and communicate effectively orally and in writing, using appropriate referencing.
4. Develop basic skills and techniques in legal problem solving, critical analysis, legal reasoning, and reflection.

Assessment Tasks

1 Weekly Quizzes

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

In this unit, you will be reading articles and materials that will broaden your understanding of the topics of law and justice. At the end of each module (modules 1-10), a quiz will test your comprehension of these materials and your ability to apply concepts from these materials.

Each quiz assigns you four questions, drawn randomly from a bank. Each question is worth a half mark and thus each quiz is worth a total of 2% for each module.

All quizzes must be completed by 1pm (Qld time) on Friday 27 May 2022 (week 11). No extensions beyond this due date are permitted.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Demonstrate understanding of the Australian legal system, rules of law, precedent, and how law is made and developed in Australia.

2 Workbooks

Assessment Type

Learning logs / diaries / Journal / log books

Task Description

This unit emphasises practical and applied learning, to draw connections between the readings/preparatory materials and the real world context in which they are used.

Each workshop is connected to a weekly challenge that tests your skills and understanding. To evidence what you have learned, you are required to reflective reports responding to each weekly challenge. Each will be approximately half a page in length and can include elements such as tables or diagrams.

You must also complete a capstone challenge, which requires to you integrate and analyse what you have learned throughout the unit. You will be provided with an essay question in Week 10. Your capstone challenge answer should demonstrate independent critical thinking, analysis, and reflection.

Satisfactory completion of each weekly challenge is worth 2% of your mark for the unit. The capstone challenge is worth 20% of your mark for the unit.

Workbook submission is in two parts. You must submit Workbook (Part 1), containing your weekly challenge answers for weeks 1-5, in week 6. In week 12, you must submit Workbook (Part 2), containing your weekly challenge answers for weeks 6-10, and an answer to the capstone challenge.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (22 Apr 2022) 1:00 pm AEST

Workbook (Part 1) for modules 1 to 5 is due at 1pm (Qld time) on Friday 22 April 2022 (week 6). Workbook (Part 2), for modules 6 to 10 and the capstone challenge, is due at 1pm (Qld time) on Friday 3 June 2022 (week 12).

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (6 May 2022)

We will endeavour to return grades for Workbook (Part 1) within 2 weeks. Grades for Workbook (Part 2) will be released upon certification of grades.

Weighting

- Develop basic skills and techniques in legal problem solving, critical analysis, legal reasoning, and reflection.

3 Legal Problem-Solving Exercise

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

In this unit, you will be learning practical skills for working in and around the legal and justice systems. The first half of the term will teach you how to find, use and evaluate legal authorities and sources of information. To test what you have learned, you will complete a legal problem-solving exercise which will be released in week 8 and due in week 10. This will be supported by a workshop challenge in week 7 that features a hypothetical problem.

You will be assessed on your ability to identify the legal issues in a factual scenario and locate and interpret the law. You must apply the law to the facts to provide advice to a client. You will also be assessed on your ability to explain your reasoning, the steps you took in solving the problem and the decisions that you made. In short you will need to “show your working”.

Assessment Due Date

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
