Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Students gave positive feedback of the discussion in Zoom sessions of each topic from a practical perspective.

Recommendation

The Unit Coordinator will continue to discuss each topic in the weekly live Zoom sessions from a practical perspective to show students how the law is practice.

Feedback

Positive feedback of the first assessment task that required students to prepare written submissions for court.

Recommendation

Criminal Law will continue to adopt a practical based assessment task in future offerings which will require students to prepare written submissions for a practical scenario. A practical based task will develop students' skills in identifying legal issues and preparing a succinct legal argument.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Analyse and explain criminal law offences against the person and against property
2. Analyse and explain the elements of the criminal offence or defence, and the onus and burden of proof
3. Research and apply principles of criminal law in Queensland as expressed in legislation and case law to the analysis of criminal law problems
4. Apply skills in communication, critical legal thinking and reasoning.
