

LAWS12061 Administrative Law

Term 2 - 2021

Profile information current as at 28/11/2021 06:58 pm

All details in this unit profile for LAWS12061 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

LAWS12061 Administrative Law examines the legal rules, principles and procedures applied by the courts and administrative tribunals to review and check the exercise of executive power and the legality of administrative (executive) action and decision-making, especially insofar as they affect the rights, interests and legitimate expectations of individuals and the public. It also looks at the constitutional, statutory, common law and equitable remedies available against invalid executive action and decision-making. Topics you will study in this unit include: the organisation and structure of the administration; administrative law theory; common law and statutory avenues of judicial review at Commonwealth and State level; grounds of judicial review; remedies; crown immunity; the Administrative Appeals Tribunal; statutory review; and Freedom of Information. This unit meets the LPAB requirements for administrative law.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

Weekly quizzes assist students in staying on top of their workloads.

Recommendation

The weekly quizzes should be kept as they have helped students stay on track. They are also important in terms of providing formative feedback about students' level of understanding of key concepts.

Feedback from Student evaluation and emails

Feedback

Engaging tutorials assist in student learning.

Recommendation

The weekly tutorials should continue to be designed to get students to think about and apply the law to case-based scenarios. This approach provides strong opportunities for experiential learning which assists students in learning about the relevance of Administrative Law to many day-to-day executive decisions.

Feedback

A pastoral approach to teaching is valued.

Recommendation

Students value a pastoral approach to teaching which can involve reaching out to students who are not engaging or not engaging enough. Such an approach helps students complete a unit.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Identify, discuss, and explain the legal rules, principles and procedures applied by the courts and administrative tribunals to review and check the exercise of executive power and the legality of administrative (executive) action and decision-making
2. Review and critique the legality of administrative (executive) action and decision-making
3. Critically evaluate and explain the available constitutional, statutory, common law and equitable remedies available against invalid executive action and decision-making
4. Research appropriate legal principles, statutes, and case law, and cite and apply those to the analysis of administrative law disputes.

Assessment Tasks

1 Weekly Online Quiz

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

For this individual assessment, there will be a weekly online multiple-choice quiz throughout the Term corresponding to the respective topics of weeks 1 to 11 (excluding week 5), comprising a total of ten (10) weekly quizzes. Each weekly quiz involves one multiple-choice question (case-type or conceptual).

Students are given two attempts to arrive at the correct answer.

Each weekly online quiz, which comprises 1% of the final grade, shall be opened and made visible to students on Monday of each week at about 11 a.m. (Qld time). The first quiz corresponding to the week 1 topic shall be opened and made visible on the Monday of week 2 (19 July). The second quiz corresponding to the week 2 topic shall then be opened and made visible on the Monday of week 3 (26 July), et seq.

Students have seven calendar days (or until Monday at 11 am, QLD time) to answer each weekly online quiz. After the lapse of the seven-day period, students shall lose the opportunity to answer the quiz for that particular week. Given that each quiz only comprises one percent of the grade and that students have one week to do a quiz, there will be no extension whatsoever to do a quiz nor can a special quiz be arranged under any circumstance. The answer to a quiz shall be made visible immediately at the end of the seven-day period to do a quiz. There will be no online quiz during the mid-term break.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
