General Information

Overview

Family Law will equip you with the knowledge and skills to practice family law. The unit will provide you with an understanding of the legislation and case law relating to the dissolution of the marriage relationship and de facto relationships, financial arrangements including the division of property, spousal maintenance and child support, the role of dispute resolution in family law and negotiating child focused arrangements pertaining to children. You will develop the ability to identify legal issues and structure legal arguments to resolve family law issues. The unit will also introduce you to principles of trauma-informed lawyering, which are essential for practice in this highly contentious area of the law.
