Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Based on student feedback during tutorials during semester.

Feedback

Use tutorials to learn note taking and exam technique.

Recommendation

Continue to develop and use problem questions to develop students' capacity to prepare notes for and to sit examinations.

Feedback from SUTE data and email feedback from students.

Feedback

No other specific feedback - the SUTE data/feedback reflected students' satisfaction with the current format and approach taken in the subject.

Recommendation

Will continue to engage with students to ensure they are happy with the approach during next iteration of the subject in 2026.

Feedback from SUTE data.

Feedback

Feedback regarding difficulty of providing a legal opinion on content not already covered.

Recommendation

Ensure more announcements (more than three next time) on the fact that the assignment is a research assignment, intended to test students' ability to research a topic in the subject area as part of external accreditation body's requirements. As such, the assignment will necessarily have to cover matters not covered in classes before the due date for the assessment.
