General Information

Overview

Family Law is a third-year unit delivered via intensive mode. The assessment in Family Law will require you to participate in advocacy-based tasks, which may include live oral assessment in the form of a viva voce, peer work conducting a hearing, written advice and submissions. Family Law will equip you with the knowledge and skills to practice family law. You will develop the ability to identify legal issues and structure legal arguments to resolve the issue. Family Law will provide you with an understanding of the legislation and case law relating to the dissolution of the marriage relationship and de facto relationship, financial arrangements including the division of property, spousal maintenance and child support, the role of dispute resolution in family law and negotiating child focused arrangements pertaining to children.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback via email, in Zoom sessions and SUTE

Feedback

The unit materials were available the day Moodle went live which was great for studying via intensive mode

Recommendation

In 2024 the UC should have all materials available on the day Moodle goes live for Term 2.

Feedback from SUTE feedback

Feedback

Some students felt week 1 had alot of content

Recommendation

In 2023 based on feedback from 2022, module 2 moved into week 1 so that students had an additional week to work on assessment 1 which is based on module 1 and module 2 (delivered via intensive mode in week 1). In 2024 the UC has already amended the unit profile to put module 2 back into week 2. In 2024 students will be reminded that they can access all materials for module 2 the day Moodle goes live.

Feedback

Positive feedback from students in regard to the live Zoom sessions which discussed family law scenarios from a real life perspective

Recommendation

In 2024 the UC should continue to give examples of family law scenarios that will prepare students for practice as a family lawyer.
