Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Reflection by Unit Coordinator and Learning & Teaching Coordinator

Feedback

Reduce the number of assessments

Recommendation

The number of assessments in the unit (currently four assessments) should be reduced to allow students more time to work on each assessment, particularly as T3 is a busy time of year.

Feedback from Student feedback, Unit Coordinator reflection

Feedback

Retain the authentic drafting task

Recommendation

Retain authentic drafting exercises that expose students to tasks they would be expected to undertake as a newly qualified lawyer or trainee working in a firm specialising in wills and estate planning.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Draft a Will and a Power of Attorney from a given set of facts.
2. Explain how the administration of an estate (intestate or testate) should proceed.
3. Recognise, analyse and critically reflect on the succession law issues arising out of encountered fact situations.
4. Describe the ethical considerations that arise with wills and powers of attorney.
