Term 3 - 2018

Profile information current as at 19/08/2022 05:59 pm

All details in this unit profile for LAWS13014 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Revenue Law is an important consideration for those engaging in legal practice insofar as issues arising out of revenue law will impact on advice given in a range of different situations. This unit gives an understanding of the underlying concepts of revenue law focusing on the Income Tax Assessment Acts and supporting legislation as well as looking at other important areas of revenue law practice which impact on advice given such as Goods and Services Tax and Fringe Benefits Tax.

Assessment Overview

1. Written Assessment

Weighting: 40%

2. Written Assessment

Weighting: 60%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from In class

Feedback

The final assessment item did not examine some of the content of the unit. It was suggested that a take home exam or exam may better assess the content of the course.

Recommendation

A formal exam, or take home exam will be considered for the next offering to examine more of the unit content.

Feedback from E-mail

Feedback

The overall satisfaction of the unit for 2017 was 4.7 with students expressing positive comments on the unit contents and delivery, in particular with the thorough weekly zoom sessions, which were recorded and uploaded.

Recommendation

The current unit structure and delivery methods will be maintained.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

The study guides were too brief.

Recommendation

Study guides may be expanded to include additional information to the text book. They will also be updated to reflect recent legislative changes.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Weekly zoom sessions were invaluable and provided assistance in completing the assessment items

Recommendation

Zoom sessions will continue to be used in conjunction with the other resources, especially in terms of completing the assessment items.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explain the distinction between income and capital and determine when taxpayers will be assessed on income or capital gains tax
2. Differentiate between expenses which constitute deductions and expenses which constitute capital and determine when expenditure may be utilised to reduce a taxpayer's assessable income
3. Apply the current tax legislation to the taxation of various entities, including consideration of international taxation agreements
4. Research and analyse the Australian Tax System, including the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and Fringe Benefits Tax (FBT) regimes
5. Apply analytical and critical legal skills in formulating ethical solutions to problems in revenue law.

2 Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

QUESTION

If a taxpayer is dissatisfied with a notice of assessment, discuss and detail how a taxpayer lodge an objection and may appeal to the AAT, the Federal Court, the Full Court of the Federal Court, the High Court of Australia and whether they can appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Discuss and detail the process of objecting to the Notice of Assessment, including any relevant time frames.

Analyse whether the process is different, if the Assessment is an Amended or Default Assessment.

Provide at least 2 examples of cases that have been appealed to the High Court of Australia and an example of a case that went to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Consider and discuss the commercial and practical consequences of a taxation appeal.

Analyse also the role, if any, of the Inspector General of Taxation or the Tax Ombudsman.

Required:

Support your answers by reference to statute, case law or Taxation Office Rulings.

You are required to submit one WORD document (not PDF) containing all parts of your Written Assessment with the document name as your student name with student number (e.g. Peter Smith s001234)

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
