Term 1 - 2024

Profile information current as at 12/05/2024 10:28 pm

All details in this unit profile for LAWS13021 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Criminal Law in Practice is delivered via intensive mode. The unit will build on your existing knowledge of criminal law with an emphasis on developing practical oral and written communication skills designed to assist you in the practice of criminal law. You will complete advocacy based assessment tasks that will require you to present legal argument, orally, via the use of zoom. You will analyse fundamental aspects of criminal law and apply the law using a practical methodology. In this unit you will study practical topics relating to specific criminal law issues including police powers and responsibilities in arrest and questioning, applying for bail, the registry committal and committal hearing process, procedures to ensure a fair trial, the role of the jury and verdict, sentencing of youth offenders and adult offenders and the appeals process to the District Court of Queensland, the Queensland Court of Appeal and the High Court of Australia. The unit has a maximum number of students who can enrol due to the advocacy based assessment tasks.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Feedback

Students gave positive feedback that all materials were available when Moodle went live.

Recommendation

The UC will ensure that all material is available the day Moodle goes live.

Feedback

Students gave positive feedback that the unit materials and the design of assessment tasks were relevant to the degree and preparing them for legal practice.

Recommendation

The UC when updating the unit materials and designing the assessment tasks, will ensure the materials and assessment tasks are authentic and prepare students for legal practice, which can be achieved through criminal law scenarios.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Research and apply principles of criminal law from legislation, rules and case law to the analysis of practical criminal law scenarios
2. Demonstrate persuasive written and oral communication skills in response to practical criminal law scenarios
3. Apply critical legal thinking, analytical reasoning and professional judgment that demonstrate an in-depth understanding of criminal law issues.

Assessment Tasks

1 Criminal Law Advocacy

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

In week 1, on Moodle, you will be provided with a criminal law scenario and details to complete assessment 1.

You will be required to present your legal argument via zoom in a live format to the unit coordinator and in the presence of other students.

You will be graded on your legal advocacy, in addition to how you link your legal argument with reference to the law and facts.

You will present this task on a date to be selected. A share document on Moodle will be available in week 1. You will use this document to select a day and time to complete the oral assessment in addition to selecting the role of defence or prosecutor.

The purpose of this assessment is to develop your legal advocacy skills. Therefore, the feedback is designed to refine and improve your advocacy skills to better prepare you for criminal law legal practice. You receive your feedback from the Unit coordinator immediately following your oral submissions.

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Monday (1 Apr 2024) 8:00 am AEST

The written component is to be submitted via Moodle. The oral component will be conducted via zoom during week 5.

Return Date to Students

Students will receive verbal feedback after their zoom presentation. A grade will be confirmed via Moodle Gradebook after all students complete the assessment task.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

You will be assessed on your legal advocacy skills. In addition to how you link your legal argument with reference to the law and the facts in a persuasive and concise style using grammatically correct language.

Assessment criteria:

These criteria are a general guide as to the standard expected at the various levels. It is not necessarily the case that all criteria will be met at a particular standard, as there may be superior performance on one of the criteria and not so satisfactory performance on another.

High Distinction standard:

- the assignment is very well written/spoken and clearly expressed
- there is a demonstrated appreciation and understanding of the issues involved
- the assignment is well structured and logically organised
- demonstrated mastery of referencing system
- there is evidence of a comprehensive analysis of the issues

Distinction standard:

- the assignment is well written/spoken and expressed
- the assignment is structured and logical
- the issues have been reasonably well identified and appreciated
- there is correct use of referencing
- issues have been analysed

Credit standard:

- the assignment is generally well written/spoken and expressed
- the assignment is structured and sequential
- referencing is satisfactory
- issues are identified and addressed
- there has been an attempt to analyse some of the issues

Pass standard:

- the assignment is able to be followed and understood
- the assignment could perhaps be better organised and structured
- the referencing may need improvement
- issues may need to be identified and addressed in more depth
- analysis when present may be incorrect

Fail standard:

- the assignment is sometimes significantly short of the required length
- the expression is poor and difficult to understand
- the assignment is poorly organised
- there has been a failure to address the issues in the question
- referencing is generally inadequate

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
