General Information

Overview

Competition Law examines the economic and legal principles which underpin Australia's competitive market economy. In this unit you will examine the key concepts and principles of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) and analyse case law interpreting and applying the legislation. You will understand the role of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission in regulating the conduct of competition law ensuring the rights and responsibilities of business and individuals. The study and discussion of current issues and recent case law regarding competition law will provide you with an understanding of how the legislation is applied and empower you with the ability to develop and present legal argument.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.
