Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Comments during the workshop where practical issues in taxation are discussed together with the workshop questions.

Feedback

Students have appreciated the practical approach being taken in the teaching of taxation law.

Recommendation

Maintaining this approach. It means that by using practical case studies which reflect the real-world experience, AI should have no impact as each question every term is different and all requiring calculation of taxable income and tax payable by individuals and companies.
