Weighting: 70%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Criteria

Assessment criteria

Criteria that will determine the mark given in relation to assessment in this unit will be:

- Identification of all issues that arise in the question
- Discussion of theory or calculation with workings that underlies those issues
- Identification of relevant sections of legislation
- Identification of relevant case authorities
- Application of the law to the facts that arise in the question
- Mastery of referencing
- Spelling and grammar accuracy

A mark sheet is available on Moodle which will outline the marks allocation on the criteria listed above.

As a general guide, characteristics indicative of the respective levels of achievement in the assignment are as follows. It is not necessarily the case that all these criteria will be met at a particular standard as there may be a better performance on some criteria over others.

High distinction standard

- the answer is very well written and clearly expressed
- there is a demonstrated appreciation and understanding of the issues involved
- the answer is well structured and logically organised
- demonstrated mastery of referencing system
- there is evidence of a comprehensive analysis of the issues
- conclusions are backed by well-reasoned arguments demonstrating a detailed insight and analysis of issues
- references are made to the appropriate legislation for particular issues
- statutory provisions are analysed and interpreted correctly
- the legislation is applied to the particular fact situation in a competent manner
- consideration is given to the operation of the common law
- there may be consideration of issues not raised in the tutorials and answer guides

Distinction standard

- the answer is well written and expressed
- the answer is structured and logical
- the issues have been reasonably well identified and appreciated
- there is correct use of referencing
- issues have been analysed
- reference is made to all appropriate legislation, although the analysis and interpretation is not as detailed and reasoned as for the high distinction standard
- the effect of the common law is considered
- there is a comprehensive coverage of the issues
- occasional errors of law and legal reasoning may still be present

Credit standard

- the answer is generally well written and expressed
- the answer is structured and sequential
- referencing is satisfactory
- issues are identified and addressed
- there has been an attempt to analyse some of the issues
- the coverage of issues is reasonably comprehensive often with a good treatment and analysis of particular points
- errors of law and incorrect reasoning may sometimes be present
- statutory interpretation may require improvement
- depth of treatment is often lacking in some of the issues

Pass standard

- the answer is able to be followed and understood
- the answer could perhaps be better organised and structured
- the referencing may need improvement
- issues may need to be identified and addressed in more depth
- analysis when present may be incorrect
- some familiarity with the legislation and its application is demonstrated
- sometimes the conclusions reached are simple
- there may be several errors of law
- there may be quantities of material of marginal relevance included in the answer

Fail standard

- the answer may be significantly short of the required length
- the written expression is poor and difficult to understand
- the answer is poorly organised
- there has been a failure to identify and address the issues in the question
- referencing is generally inadequate
- there is a lack of familiarity with the legislation and its appropriate application
- the reasoning and application demonstrated is poor
- frequently there is much irrelevant material

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
