The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

Corrections

Unit Profile Correction added on 07-03-22

This unit is accredited in accordance with CPA Australia and Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CAANZ). From Term 1 2022 these accrediting authorities now require that 50% of all assessment is invigilated. An invigilated assessment is one where a student is observed by another person when completing the assessment (for example an exam).

In accordance with this requirement Assessment Task 2 (Take Home Paper) will now become an Invigilated Online Test (60%). Assessment Task 1 (Individual Assignment) (40%) will remain unchanged as a 60% Invigilated Online Test will bring the invigilated assessment to 50%.

Further details will be provided in Moodle in Term 1.

General Information

Overview

This unit will provide you with an introduction to the law of contract and commercial law as they operate within the parameters of Australia's common law based legal system. Topics include the origins of Australia's present legal system and the current legal environment in which contract and commercial law operate to regulate commercial transacting between firms as well as individuals using concepts, doctrines, principles, legislation and case law. It explains the key functions and processes of the legal system. A particular study is made of the nature, terms, validity, operation and discharge of contracts, the process of litigation and alternate dispute resolution methods of corporate and non-corporate business structures. Commercial Law topics studied include Agency, the Sale of Goods, Australian Consumer Law, Real and Personal Property, Torts, Securities and Bankruptcy. If you have successfully completed the unit LAWS20028 you should not enrol in this unit.

2. Take Home Exam

Weighting: 60%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback, self-reflection.

Feedback

Students are mostly accounting or business students and may be international. Law subjects are difficult for them and students struggle to answer legal questions.

Recommendation

Workshops, which are already well received, can focus more on the basic concepts and the skills required for answering law questions.

Feedback from Student feedback, self-reflection.

Feedback

Students have difficulty facing legal assessment tasks.

Recommendation

The assessment items can be supported more with discussions both in class and in support materials.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. delineate the structure, institutions, key functions and processes of the Australian legal system in which contracts and commercial transactions are devised and undertaken
2. demonstrate a sound comprehension of the main concepts, doctrines, principles, legislation and case law in the contract and commercial law topics covered
3. recognise the types of legal problems likely to be contained in commonly encountered business transactions
4. employ legal skills and critical reasoning to identify and analyse the variable and discrete configuration of obligations, rights and remedies attaching to parties across a range of contracts and business transactions
5. make informed judgements as to the likely legal outcomes of standard types of business transactions, coupled with the potential for managing them in a proactive, risk-avoiding and value maximising manner

Assessment Tasks

1 Individual Assignment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The assignment involves a problem solving exercise where students must demonstrate research, analytical and writing skills. Students are required to examine a factual scenario and then apply relevant laws to a number of questions.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (22 Apr 2022) 11:00 pm AEST

The assignment must be submitted via Moodle. Assignments submitted after the due date without an approved online extension will incur a penalty of 5% of the total marks available per day in accordance with the relevant CQU policy.

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (6 May 2022)

Feedback and results will be provided to students by Moodle.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

The assignment will be assessed according to the following criteria:

1. Problem solving: students must demonstrate problem solving skills by identifying and applying relevant legal rules and principles.
2. Critical thinking: students must demonstrate critical thinking by analysing, applying and evaluating facts and law in a problem solving context.
3. Information literacy: students must demonstrate information literacy by identifying, understanding and applying legal rules and principles.
4. Writing and presentation: students must submit answers with a clear writing style that uses appropriate grammar and expression. Ideas and arguments must be presented using a logical structure and order.
5. Referencing: students must appropriately cite relevant references when using legislation, cases and secondary materials (for example books or journal articles).

A detailed marking rubric is available on Moodle.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
