

LITR19052 The Modern Novel

Term 1 - 2021

Profile information current as at 23/04/2024 04:46 pm

All details in this unit profile for LITR19052 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit invites students to explore a selection of novels by a number of significant writers from the twentieth century and from a range of national literatures. These novels address a range of issues including post-colonialism, the transition from the psyche to psychology, sexuality, the American Jazz age, Southern post-bellum agonistics, gender, magic realism, existentialism, slavery, racism, the holocaust and identity. The unit also charts the passage from modernism to post-modernism.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure (Higher Education Coursework).

Offerings For Term 1 - 2021

Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Student comment: 'This unit allowed me to enjoy the great works of literature chosen for this course without having to recreate and turn them into something not intended by the authors. It was a great opportunity to really pursue the novels as they were meant to be. I also really enjoyed the fortnightly tutorials as they were such a comfortable space to discuss each other's opinions on the novels and their content'.

Recommendation

Continue with the current learning design.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Adding a few more question options for the last assessment piece would be good.

Recommendation

Some new and extra essay options are in development for 2021.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Rather than having more analysis assignments can there be others such as creating an ending for a book or something similar.

Recommendation

There is potential for developing this kind of Assessment Item as creativity and criticism are certainly two sides of the same coin.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- 1. analyse and compare selected modern novels within a framework of issues such as ideology, gender, race and the politics of literature;
- 2. articulate the evolution of the novel from socio/moral/expressive realism through modernism and post-modernism; and,
- 3. interpret, analyse and evaluate complex literary texts.

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment 1 - Portfolio

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Word length: 1300 words

You may select any one (1) novel from the text list to complete and submit a Portfolio of three (3) activities as listed below. Note: the novel you select for this assessment cannot be used for Assessments 2 or 3.

You will need to access the Portfolio Activity Workbook (available in the Topic 1 Introduction section in Moodle). These activities will assist you to develop your textual analysis skills for your later assessments in this unit and further study. They are designed with a creative aspect that may make them suitable items for your professional portfolio to benefit your employment prospects.

Week 3 Activity: Written reflection (you may present this as a reflective journal entry, a letter to the editor or an opinion piece for a magazine)

Week 4 Activity: Themes interview/podcast/vodcast (you may present this as a written script, audio or video file) Week 5 Activity: Critical discussion question (written response)

Task Description:

Part 1 (optional): You should complete all three (3) activities in the Portfolio Activity Workbook from Weeks 3-5 on a weekly basis. You will be able to receive feedback on your Week 3 and 4 activities by submitting them to the blog links provided, allowing you to revise them before final submission. The blogs will only be open for submissions until Sunday of each relevant week and you will receive feedback by the following week.

Part 2 (compulsory): You should collate your three (3) Portfolio Activities from Weeks 3-5 and submit to Moodle by the due date in Week 5. The creative presentation of your Portfolio is up to you, however, please use 12 point font and double line spacing for written submissions.

While it is optional to complete Part 1, you are encouraged to complete these activities on a weekly basis so you have sufficient time to complete them, and to take advantage of the opportunity to receive feedback to assist in improving your grade.

The word count allows for a variation of +/- 10%. It excludes the cover page and reference list. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

2 Assessment 2 - Book Review

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Length: 1500 words

You may select any one (1) novel from the text list for this assessment. Note: The novel you select for this assessment cannot be those used for Assessments 1 or 3.

Task Description

Writing and publishing book reviews can enhance your professional profile, and may be an item you could add to your portfolio. For this assessment you are required to find a literary newspaper or journal that accepts book reviews, then write a Book Review targeted at that publication based on a close reading of your selected novel.

You should model your review on the kind of book reviews you find in your literary newspaper or journal (irrespective of whether they only accept current titles). DO NOT model your review on the kinds of reviews you might find on the GoodReads or Amazon.com websites. These reviews tend to be solely focused on whether the book is enjoyable to read or not; in your review, you will be thinking much more broadly about the strengths and weaknesses of the book and its contribution to literary culture.

Some examples of appropriate publications include (but are not limited to):

- Review section of the Weekend Australian,
- Weekend supplements to The Age or the Sydney Morning Herald
- Australian Book Review
- Sydney Review of Books
- New York Review of Books
- London Review of Books
- Times Literary Supplement
- Kirkus Reviews
- TEXT Journal

Your Book Review should follow the model/guidelines of your chosen publication, as applicable, and cover the following points (at minimum):

- A brief pitch to the publication outlining why it fits their review section (no more than 250 words, included before Book Review)
- A brief description of the novel/plot
- A brief discussion of its historical, social and/or literary context
- An analysis of its main themes
- An evaluation of its significance: e.g. is it an important work of literature? If so, why? If not, why not?

The word count allows for a variation of +/- 10%. It excludes the cover page and reference list. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

3 Assessment 3 - Essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Length: 2000 words

You may select any two (2) novels from the Text List for this assessment. Note: The novels you select for this assessment cannot be those used for Assessments 1 or 2.

Task Description

This assessment will allow you to pull all the skills you have learnt this term together in exploring a topic of interest to you in relation to the Modern Novel. Referring to the texual analysis and essay writing resources provided, write an essay on one (1) of the following topics:

- 1. Gender and sexuality are key issues explored in many modern novels, sometimes transgressively so. Explore the ways in which your two selected novels deal with gender and sexuality.
- 2. Modern literature uses a variety of narrative techniques and multiple points of view to generate a complex portrait of the human psyche. Discuss with reference to your two selected novels.
- 3. The modern novel challenges and even rewrites official versions of history, bringing to light perspectives, experiences and points of view that might otherwise remain hidden. Discuss with reference to your two selected novels.
- 4. Students may consult with the lecturer to create your own analytical topic in relation to the Modern Novel, and discuss with reference to your two selected novels. Please email me at l.dodd@cqu.edu.au for approval of your topic. Topics must be approved at least one week before the due date for this option.

The essay must include in-depth textual analyses of your chosen novels as well as references to a range of scholarly sources (minimum of 5). Please note that all references need to be academic (i.e. peer-reviewed journal articles and/or scholarly books), obtained using academic databases and/or library resources. Wiki and other non-scholarly references from the Internet will not be counted in the minimum requirement. You should acknowledge all sources using the Harvard (author-date) referencing style. Written submissions should be in 12 point font with double line spacing. The word count allows a +/- 10% variation and is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page and reference list. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
