

LITR19056 Shakespeare Today

Term 2 - 2020

Profile information current as at 02/05/2024 03:43 pm

All details in this unit profile for LITR19056 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this Unit, you will investigate Shakespeare's insights on what it is to be human by analysing a selection of contemporary versions of his works. You will also investigate a range of issues relevant to the contemporary study of Shakespeare. The Unit is suitable for those with no prior knowledge of Shakespeare and for those studying to be English teachers.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student response (unit evaluation)

Feedback

The support and feedback throughout the unit was amazing. The lecturers genuinely had an interest in seeing you exceed and this was evident in their feedback and communication throughout the term

Recommendation

Unit coordinator continue to provide students with a supportive and positive learning experience.

Feedback

I do believe, with the movies, the links need to be updated and there should be more ways to access these for free so we do not have to pay a load of money on movies. I also do believe that some of the content needs to be updated, just so we are recent as the lecture notes are all from about 2010, which was nearly 10 years old. overall though it was a great detailed unit, I quite enjoyed it.

Recommendation

Content needs to be updated to cover the most recent versions of the movies, which is what many students were watching. Provide better access/links to movies (although cost is reasonable given there are no set textbooks).

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Analyse and appraise Shakespeare's exploration of the human condition
2. Articulate ways in which contemporary critical practices have shaped our interpretations of Shakespeare's works.

Assessment Tasks

1 Short Paper

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Word length: no less than 1000 words:

Answer one (1) of the following:

1. According to José Arroyo, Baz Luhrmann's William Shakespeare's Romeo + Juliet is a 'kiss, kiss, bang, bang' movie which aims to entertain but also to showcase Shakespeare's language: the words are not the 'raison d'être' of the film and do not 'nullify the mise en scene', but they are there' (Arroyo, J 1997, 'Kiss kiss bang bang', Sight and Sound, vol. 7, no. 3, p. 6). Find some evidence from the film that helps explain these two categories - Shakespeare's language, and entertainment (Luhrmann style) - and explore the connection between them in terms of the overall significance we attribute to the story.
2. 'Bevington believes that although Much ado about nothing is a romantic comedy, the picture it paints of the way that men behave in love is "troublesome". Men seem 'overly dependent on women for their happiness and sense of male achievement'. Yet men see women as 'faithless', ready to 'cuckold' them at the slightest provocation'. This is 'why Claudio is putty in the hands of Don John' (Bevington, D 2002, Shakespeare, Blackwell, Oxford, p. 102). Do the men in Much Ado have any redeeming features? (Draw on evidence from the film).

(Note: Students must not use the films/plays chosen here for the Essay).

2 Reflective Journal

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Word length: no less than 2000 words

Students are expected to keep a reflective journal comprising 5 entries of no less than 400 words each. These entries will respond to the reflective journal questions listed on the Moodle site for weeks 5 to 9. The reflective journal should be submitted on the due date as a word document through the Moodle online submission system. Further guidelines for the reflective journal are available on the Moodle website. Students who post their answers to the relevant weekly forum and respond to the posts of other students will be eligible for a 5% bonus mark (i.e. 5% of 50% = 2.5%).

3 Essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Word length: no less than 1500

Answer ONE of the following (NB: in answering this question, students should not use texts discussed in the Short Paper. Please also note that the films chosen MUST be of the plays studied in this Unit.)

1. Many of Shakespeare's texts deal with the consequences of disruptions to the social order by naive, clumsy or malicious characters. Choose two of Shakespeare's films/plays (or a Shakespearean play/film and a contemporary adaptation or novelisation) and explore the legitimacy and significance of this view.

2. 'In Shakespeare's plays, women are portrayed as unruly and uncontrollable or as beautiful and desirable'. Choose two of Shakespeare's films/plays (or a Shakespearean play/film and a contemporary adaptation or novelisation) and explore the accuracy and significance of this view.
3. Henry IV says: 'Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown' (Henry IV, 3.1). Choose two of Shakespeare's 'royal' play/films studied (or a Shakespearean play/film and a contemporary adaptation or novelisation) and explore the consequences of this view.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
