Students will explore the ways in which Australian identities are constituted, changed and challenged by these texts, through a variety of critical perspectives and contexts of reception.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

'Great choices of novels to study.'

Recommendation

Ensure a range of contemporary literary texts continue to be set.

Feedback

'The books are quite long in a lot of cases, and there are a lot of them. I think students are very likely to only read about four or five during the course, so pre-warning of content might be useful.'

Recommendation

Revise the unit profile to make it clear that a big time commitment is needed to keep up with the reading in this unit. Also, clearly establish how many texts students are required to read in order to complete the unit.

Feedback from Unit coordinator observation

Feedback

Students with no experience of literary studies struggled to understand the assessment requirements.

Recommendation

Consider introducing a prerequisite of one introductory-level literary studies unit.

Assessment Tasks

1 Short Paper

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Hugh Mackay argues that myths and generation gaps 'aren't biologically inevitable: they are simply the result of different generations spending their formative years in different social, cultural, economic and technological environments' (Mackay, H 1997, Generations, Macmillian Sydney, p. 1). Using some of the 'gaps' Mackay identifies in his argument, explore a selection of generational tensions in George Johnston's My brother Jack. Find some direct evidence from the novel that suggests that the characters are products of their social and cultural context and show how this evidence is significant for our reading of the novel.

Word Length: 1200 words

2 Essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Choose one of the following topics.

NB. Texts used in this essay should not be used in the research essay.

Topics

1. 'There's a time for sowin', and a time for reapin' (Summer of the Seventeenth Doll, 2001, p. 287). Do you agree with Emma's comment? Why?
2. What makes Les Murray's poem 'The Last Hellos' Australian?
3. In Patrick White's The eye of the storm, Elizabeth Hunter's 'desire for the illusion of beauty' shapes her identity and taints her memories. Discuss.
4. In The Orchard, what is the significance of the re-growth of the hands (p.267)?
5. 'Tim Winton's characters in Dirt Music inhabit a place that is both physically and emotionally at the very frontier of existence. This changes them in destructive ways'. Discuss.
6. Bliss is a story about the stories the characters tell in order to make sense of the world they live in. Discuss.
7. The slap, by Christos Tsiolkas, has been described as literary soap opera: lots of bubbles and froth but not much substance. Discuss.
8. Devlin-Glass suggests that Alexis Wright's Carpentaria 'melds satire with a new form of magic realism based in Indigenous knowledge' (Devlin-Glass, F 2008, 'A politics of the dreamtime: destructive and regenerative rainbows in Alexis Wright's Carpentaria', Australian Literary Studies, vol.23, no.4, p.392). How does this process work and what effect does it have on our understanding of Indigenous issues?
9. The major theme of Andrew Bovell's 'Speaking in tongues' is betrayal, but without much guilt and even less self-reflection. Discuss.

Length: 1600 words

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
