The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This first work integrated learning unit builds on the knowledge, skills and professional behaviour developed during the Master of Laboratory Medicine course. Theoretical and technical knowledge will be applied to a professional work environment in a specialised field of diagnostic Medical Laboratory Science. You will perform technical skills and analyse the outcomes to meet the competencies and skills required of an entry-level Medical Laboratory Scientist. You will perform, and reflect on, safe operations and quality management in the medical laboratory, with due regard for legislation, regulation and accreditation. Behavioural aspects of professional practice are emphasised and you are expected to reflect on your own communication, decision-making and team-work skills. Critical appraisal of performance will enable you to attain competency in your professional, technical and analytical skills.

- Mixed Mode

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Self-reflection

Feedback

Some of the assessment due dates fell in/close to the final term examination period that caused significant stress to some students

Recommendation

Given clinical placement may fall outside of the standard University term dates, related assessment due dates may differ depending on individual arrangements. Students will be encouraged to refer to the unit Moodle site for assessment details and to instigate strategies to manage competing unit obligations early in unit enrolment. Students will be encouraged to access ALC workshops on time management for additional support managing study commitments.

Feedback from Student Placement Site Evaluation

Feedback

Students very satisfied with the placement allocations in pathology (& research labs)

Recommendation

Continue to maintain the strong relationships with placement providers to ensure continuation of offers for future cohorts of CM18 CQU placement students
