General Information

Overview

This unit will guide you through the process of writing an academic essay. You will be introduced to the culture of academic writing at university and the common features of academic essays. You will develop strategies to read, evaluate and summarise information, and then use that information to develop and support an academic argument. Throughout the unit, you will develop critical thinking, note-making, formal writing and referencing skills necessary for academic writing.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Teaching team

Students benefit from reflective practice and guidance on the use of feedback.

Recommendation

Add the requirement of a guided short reflection to the final assessment so students can reflect on their previous feedback and how they have applied it.

Feedback

Students value active public forums that provide opportunities to ask questions and communicate with other students and tutors.

Recommendation

Update and streamline the Student Forum on Moodle.

Feedback from Teaching team

Feedback

Students value assessment rubrics that are clear and that support skill development across the term.

Recommendation

Update and align the Assessment 2 and Assessment 3 rubrics.
