General Information

Overview

This unit will guide you through the process of writing an academic essay. You will be introduced to the culture of academic writing at university and the common features of academic essays. You will develop strategies to read, evaluate and summarise information, and then use that information to develop and support an academic argument. Throughout the unit, you will develop critical thinking, note-making, formal writing and referencing skills necessary for academic writing.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinators and teaching team

Feedback

Assessment resources and instructions could be clearer and more streamlined.

Recommendation

Streamline assessment instructions and resources so that they are not dispersed amongst several different documents and places in Moodle. In the streamlining process, ensure that instructions are aligned amongst the different resources, providing clarity.

Feedback from Head of Course, Unit Coordinators, and teaching team

Feedback

Assessment(s) could be designed to mitigate irresponsible AI usage and encourage responsible usage.

Recommendation

Create at least one assessment that requires students to present their learning to a tutor/marker in a live, interactive environment.

Feedback from Unit Coordinators, teaching team and students

Feedback

In some cases, feedback could be more specific.

Recommendation

Provide specific, actionable feedback that students can use to improve in future assessments.
