

LOGS12006 Global Supply Chains & Trade

Term 1 - 2019

Profile information current as at 22/05/2024 03:22 am

All details in this unit profile for LOGS12006 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit provides an understanding of the wider international trade and transport economics theories, specifically in the Asia Pacific region, that affect supply chains of a business. You will review supply channels from the perspective of varying levels of infrastructure development in countries of the region to identify preferred locations for developing business relationships and alliances. The unit identifies techniques for analysing trade activities across national borders and developing interaction between trade management, finance and logistics departments to reduce the range of risks.

Offerings For Term 1 - 2019

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Assess and discuss the major factors in international trade and transport routes to identify how they affect supply chain decisions in an organisation.
2. Analyse relevant industry-based procedures and principles in the Asia Pacific region and their influence on design of supply chains best practice.
3. Compare and contrast groups of countries in the region with reference to their logistics infrastructure development.
4. Critically analyse approaches to transport network design, including intermodal locations and transport optimisation.
5. Evaluate transport economics and international trade theory to identify their value in design of supply chains.

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment #1: Business Report

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The assessment is designed for students to apply global supply chain management concepts, methods and tools. The assessment involves writing a 2000-word business report responding to assessment questions related to specific topics and/or case material. Submit your 2000-word report through Turnitin in Moodle, with a cover sheet showing the unit name and number, assessment number, your name and student number. Assessment details, case material and guidance will be provided on the unit website.

You can discuss your assessment ideas in the unit Discussion Forum #1, before you complete and submit the assessment.

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Thursday (11 Apr 2019) 3:00 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 6 Thursday (25 Apr 2019)
5:00PM

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

Your report analysis, recommendations and presentation will be assessed according to the following criteria:

Thorough understanding of relevant global supply chain management concepts, principles, theories, tools and models and the questions posed: 60%

Appropriate and well structured, concise and clear expression of global supply chain management arguments: 10%

Clear flow of thought throughout the paper with a clear and succinct purpose described in the introduction and a clear and succinct conclusion: 10%

Critical analysis and integration of relevant academic and professional literature. Insights from a minimum of ten (10) academic journals must be incorporated in your critical analysis: 10%

Appropriate in text referencing and reference list. Adherence to APA Reference Style: 5%

Clarity of expression, grammar, spelling and business report format (see below): 5%

Report length 2000-words. Submissions must be in Business Report format in Word with 1.5 line spacing and Times Roman 12 point font.

Late submissions will also be penalised at the rate of "five per cent of the total marks available for the assessment each calendar day (full or part) it is overdue" (Policy: Assessment of Coursework section 3.2.4)

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
