General Information

Overview

This unit focuses on what it means to be a health professional in Australia. You will learn about and apply the skills needed for effective interprofessional practice so that you can be an effective team member. You will learn to examine your thinking and assumptions and to reflect on your experiences to enhance your personal and professional development. You will explore social, cultural, historical and political factors that impact on the experiences of wellness and illness and on access to and quality of health care in Australia, particularly for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. You will learn how to provide culturally competent and respectful care. You will be introduced to the concept of being a change agent to foster cultural safety in learning, working and care environments.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator reflection

Feedback

Delivering team-based learning activity sessions allowed students to take responsibility for their learning, reduced student loafing, and improved student morale regarding group work.

Recommendation

Continue with team-based learning activities in future unit iterations.

Feedback from SUTE

Some students indicated the Portfolio assessment guidance and marking rubric lacked clarity.

Recommendation

Review the Portfolio assessment guidance and marking rubric for clarity in future unit iterations.

Feedback from SUTE, Unit Coordinator reflection

Some students indicated the Portfolio assessment was a very large and time-consuming assessment task.

Recommendation

Investigate breaking up the Portfolio assessment into multiple submissions throughout the term.
