Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses
Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator observations and student emails

Feedback
A substantial portion of students demonstrated Vancouver referencing style confusion and inconsistencies in their written reflection task.

Recommendation
Consider providing an additional resource as a targeted tips page in Moodle under the assessment task section to guide students about common mistakes encountered around citations and reference listing issues. This supports the existing MyCQU Referencing page however highlights examples of correct usage contextually.

Feedback from Unit coordinator observations

Feedback
The targeted Wellness Check short survey was valuable in providing a platform for liaison, student support, and insights into student perspectives during their clinical placement.

Recommendation
Continue administering the targeted Wellness Check short survey in future iterations.
