MEDS12003 Superficial Structures in Ultrasound

Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 05/12/2025 01:17 pm

All details in this unit profile for MEDS12003 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit explores the sonographic assessment of normal and pathological superficial structures. You will apply knowledge of anatomy, physiology and embryology to conduct sonographic examinations of superficial structures in the laboratory setting as well as utilising simulated clinical scenarios and case studies to critically reflect on sonographic problems. Development of the knowledge, skills and attitudes required to perform an ultrasound examination of the thyroid will be assessed within a simulated environment.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE unit comments

Feedback

Students felt the Moodle content was extensive and the layout could be improved and condensed

Recommendation

Consider condensing the information under sub-headings to make navigation simpler and content easier to find.

Feedback from SUTE unit comments

Some students were not satisfied with the time limit of the online test even though it was increased from prior year.

Recommendation

Continue with zoom tutorials using cases studies to demonstrate examples of online test questions. Consider stressing the importance of tutorial attendance to students in welcome and assessment videos.

Feedback from SUTE unit comments and Unit co-ordinator reflection

Students liked the extra labs added to the unit and the 30 minute appointment-style time limit to complete Assessment One

Recommendation

Keep Assessment One as an authentic style assessment and the extra lab practice for students
