

MEDS20005 Advanced Communication in the Health Professions

Term 2 - 2021

Profile information current as at 25/04/2024 07:28 pm

All details in this unit profile for MEDS20005 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit provides a structured programme of study facilitating the development of increased competence in the critical application of advanced communication skills in clinical practice. You will learn about the theoretical principles underpinning advanced communication, undertake a review of literature in the field, develop advanced communication skills, and critically reflect on their application, in order to improve the information and support you provide to patients, students, peers and other health professionals. Areas covered will include responding to challenging situations, effective communication with students, self awareness when interacting with patients and report writing.

Pre-requisites or Co-requisites

There are no requisites for this unit.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure \(Higher Education Coursework\).

Offerings For Term 2 - 2021

- Mixed Mode

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Postgraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Zoom tutorials

Feedback

Students appreciated continuous communication and updates via the News and the Discussion forums throughout the term from the unit coordinator.

Recommendation

Continue to provide regular communication and updates throughout the term to keep students engaged with the unit.

Feedback from Have Your Say via Moodle

Feedback

Students commented that the unit was organised with up-to-date content and reported that this equipped them with communication skills relevant to their everyday practice.

Recommendation

Continue to revise and update learning resources provided in this unit, so that they remain relevant to current practice.

Feedback from Have Your Say via Moodle

Feedback

Students were happy with the unit assessments as they could be tailored to meet their unique & individual needs/learning goals.

Recommendation

Retain similar types of assessment tasks used in 2020 as they allowed students to reflect on their own communication skills, highlight their strengths and weaknesses, and explore new strategies for improvements.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Critically reflect upon and evaluate your own use of advanced communication within clinical practice.
2. Create reasoned plans for advanced communication in challenging situations based on an analysis of the relevant literature.
3. Apply knowledge of advanced communication to situations involving clients, students and other health professionals and discuss the outcome.
4. Construct written reports which interpret patient findings and discuss recommendations based on information from case studies undertaken .

This masters unit does not lead to entry into the sonography or echocardiography profession. It is for advanced practice by qualified practitioners. As such it does not require external accreditation but we will be seeking approval for the course from the accrediting body, the ASAR.

Term Specific Information

The unit coordinator for this unit is Dr Afrooz Najafzadeh Abriz.

Afrooz is based in the Perth campus. The best way to contact Afrooz is via e-mail: a.najafzadehabriz@cqu.edu.au.

Although there are no prescribed textbooks for this unit, a comprehensive collection of research articles and e-books can be accessed via the unit's e-reading list. Pre-recorded lectures are also available each week.

There will be fortnightly tutorials for this unit facilitated by Zoom. Due to the interactive nature of these tutorials, you are encouraged to attend these live to gain the desired benefit from the resource. Recording will be available to revisit for study purposes.

It is important to regularly check your student e-mail inbox, as important information about the unit is regularly communicated via e-mail.

Assessment Tasks

1 Effective Communication in Challenging Situations

Assessment Type

Presentation and Written Assessment

Task Description

Interactions in healthcare can often be challenging due to environmental factors, workload, information overload, time pressures, poor communication, challenging colleagues, students or patients. Communication and listening skills are essential for every interaction to be effective.

There are two parts to this assessment: A written component and a video presentation.

Part 1- Written component (80% of the mark)

You are required to write a 2000 word essay in which you will critically reflect on your effective communication skills in a challenging situation related to your professional or clinical environment. This may include an interaction with a client, a patient (e.g. interaction with an angry patient or when delivering unexpected news to a patient), a problem student, a colleague or other health professionals.

This essay will narrate the significant conversation/interaction and include a description of the incident/event (what happened?) and the emotions and issues involved (why it happened?), the communication style used and the outcome of the event.

The essay will include a reflection of the event, any pitfalls that occurred, a review of related literature and provide a suggestion of best practice in the situation in light of evidence (how did others solve the problem?).

You will then create a reasoned plan for future communication in similar significant circumstances (how would you deal with this situation in the future informed by your reflection and literature findings?).

The 2000 word limit excludes the title, headings, footnotes, figure legends and references.

Part 2- Video Presentation (20% of the mark)

You are required to provide a 5 to 10-minute video presentation, where you discuss one aspect of communication, related to your chosen challenging situation outlined in your essay. You will summarise your reasoned plan focussing on one aspect of your communication (initial conversation, the outcome etc.). You can include a role-play within this presentation if you wish.

To submit the video presentation you will need to create an unlisted YouTube account and upload your recorded video on your YouTube channel.

The link to the YouTube video address should be provided at the end of the written component of the assessment (before the references).

Assessments without the recorded video will be marked as FAIL.

A detailed instruction and a marking rubric are available on the Moodle page.

Assessment Due Date

Week 8 Friday (10 Sept 2021) 2:00 pm AEST

The written assessment including the link to the video is due at 02:00 p.m. on Friday 10th of September 2021. Late submissions (without prior approval of extension) will be subject to deduction of 5% overall marks per 24 hours delay.

Return Date to Students

Week 9 Friday (17 Sept 2021)

The assessment mark, a detailed feedback and a marking rubric will be provided for students on Moodle by 02:00 p.m. on Friday 17th of September.

2 A portfolio of formal written reports of sonographic findings

Assessment Type

Portfolio

Task Description

For this assessment, a portfolio of four written ultrasound reports related to four separate complex clinical cases in which a sonographic examination was conducted by you from your routine clinical practice will be presented.

The chosen clinical cases need to demonstrate at least one ultrasound diagnosed pathology.

Each clinical case must include:

- The referral form (completely anonymised with patient's and referrer's details removed),
- Relevant ultrasound images
- Completed sonographer worksheet
- Written sonographic report (one created by the radiologist and one created by yourself) including examples of a structured and unstructured format
- Any further investigations required
- Where relevant, a differential diagnosis must be included

The portfolio will include a reflection on the writing experience and learning points that can enhance your use of sonographic report writing in the future.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Friday (8 Oct 2021) 2:00 pm AEST

The portfolio is due at 02:00 p.m. on Friday 8th of October 2021. Late submissions (without prior approval of extension) will be subject to deduction of 5% overall marks per 24 hours delay.

Return Date to Students

Exam Week Friday (22 Oct 2021)

The grade and a detailed feedback will be available by 02:00 p.m. on Friday 22nd of October 2021.

Weighting

Assessment Criteria

The Assessment Criteria will address the following:

- Student's knowledge of duty of care and best practice as a sonographer.
- Recognition and understanding of the relevant guidelines and laws governing communication of radiological findings.
- Evidence based best practice should be referred to when completing the portfolio.
- Any resources should be clearly cited using Vancouver style of in-text and end-text referencing.
- Accurate documentation and communication of findings following the recommended guidelines.
- The reports should be written in an appropriate language and be free of any spelling and grammatical errors.
- Detailed Assessment Criteria and marking rubric are available on this Unit's Moodle page.
- Each report accounts for 25% of the total mark.
- The pass mark is 50%
- This assessment accounts for 40% of your total unit grade.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
