Term 2 - 2022

Profile information current as at 20/04/2024 07:55 am

All details in this unit profile for MGMT11109 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit is designed to introduce you to the dynamic interplay of factors that influence the direction and success of contemporary business. You will explore the emerging shift from a linear economy to a circular economy and the facilitating role of entrepreneurship and innovation in successful business transitions. This includes the flow-on effects these have on business strategy, structures, employees, organisational design, and business operations. Business plays a significant role in society and the management skills required for business to be fit for the future rests with each of us. You have a role in this as an agent of positive change.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from One student provided feedback

Feedback

"I felt overwhelmed with the change of lecturer as I was struggling with content but Karen showed empathy and was my first ever lecturer who phone me to see if I was ok and offered help."

Recommendation

The quality of our sessional academics is of a very high standard; as evidenced with the care and attention provided to the student at this time.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Describe the scope, scale, and contributions of contemporary business
- Critically assess the dynamic influence of entrepreneurial, innovation, and sustainability (EIS) drivers in contemporary business

Graduate Attributes

- Problem Solving
- Critical Thinking
- Information Literacy
- Information Technology Competence
- Cross Cultural Competence

2 Managerial Perspectives Essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

In line with the unit learning outcomes 3 and 4, this 1500-word essay (following academic essay format), requires you to critically consider the following statement:

"An estimated 3 million Australians are currently under housing stress. This has been attributed to housing undersupply, slow planning approvals, sky-rocketing values of homes, and a reduction of rental stock as some owners list on short-term rental platforms such as AirBNB. Forecasts for increased interest rates through 2022 and into 2023 are likely to increase the problem."
Drawing on Handy's (2002) perspective (refer Week 1 and eReading list) about the role of business, critically consider how entrepreneurial, innovative, and sustainable (EIS) thinking by business might help to reduce housing stress in the community. In preparing an informed argument and developing compelling conclusions, draw on relevant concepts covered in Weeks 1-5 and current research from peer-reviewed academic journals.

Before you start writing:

- Review material covered in Weeks 1 to 5.
- The eReading List accessed on Moodle provides a briefing on what critical thinking is (Week 1) and the student Guide which elaborates how to write an academic essay.
- It may also be helpful to read the example essay that has been uploaded as a resource in Moodle.
- You will also need to actively engage with the resources offered by Academic Learning Centre (ALC) available in the ALC companion Moodle site associated with MGMT11010, including tutorial sessions.
- For convenience, the unit learning outcomes referred to above follow here:

#3: Critically assess the consequential impacts of entrepreneurial, innovation, and sustainability (EIS) drivers on business strategy and structure, people, organisational design, and business operations; and
#4: Critically evaluate the management skill requirements for successfully leveraging emerging EIS opportunities.

Assignment re-attempt. This assessment allows for a resubmitted attempt in certain circumstances. If you have achieved between 40-49% of the total marks for this assessment item, you may request the Unit Coordinator for this unit to allow you to make a resubmission. You must make this request in writing via email within three calendar days of receiving your marks and feedback for this assessment.

The Unit Coordinator has the sole discretion for allowing a re-submission attempt. If the Unit Coordinator allows a resubmission attempt, the decision will be conveyed to you in writing via email to your student email address. The notice will include instructions for you on:

- What has to be done by you
- When and how you must resubmit (no more than seven calendar days from the decision being emailed to you will be allowed).

Your resubmission will result in no more than 50% of the allowed marks for this assessment item being awarded in total. That is, if you are allowed a resubmission, you can achieve no more than 50% for this assessment item, regardless of how well you perform in your resubmission.

No extensions will be allowed for your resubmission.

Assessment Criteria

Your essay will be marked against the rubric which will be available on the Moodle page. In summary, the assessment criteria follow:

1. Through critical analysis, discuss how entrepreneurial, innovative and sustainability (EIS) thinking by business might help reduce housing stress in the community (15%)
2. Critically evaluate the management skill required in adopting Handy's (2002) view about the role of business (15%)
3. Adherence to academic essay structure, 1500-word limit, and quality of written expression, paragraph structure, grammar, punctuation, with spelling using Australian English (5%)
4. Insights from at least six (6) peer-reviewed papers from academic journals. Adherence to CQU University APA (7th Edition) reference style. (5%)

NOTE: In alignment with the CQUniversity Assessment Policy and Procedure, a late submission penalty of five (5) percent of the total available marks for the assessment must be deducted for each full or part calendar day the assessment task is overdue. Adhere to word-length: Assignment submissions in excess or below the specified word limit (+/-10%) will be penalised at 1% per 100-words over/under the limit.

3 Business Report

Assessment Type

Reflective Practice Assignment

Task Description

This assignment enables you to demonstrate learning outcomes 4 and 5, respectively:

- Critically evaluate the management skill requirements for successfully leveraging emerging EIS (entrepreneurship, innovation, and sustainability) opportunities;
- Critically evaluate the influence of leadership in shaping ethical and socially responsible initiatives for a circular economy.

In a 1500-word business report, critically evaluate how AGL Energy might evaluate strategic EIS and circular economy opportunities as its new Board responds to shareholder expectations for an orderly transition from coal-fired power generation to renewable energy, and alignment with climate change goals under the Paris Agreement.

Before you start this assignment:

- Review material covered in lectures about strategy, (Week 6), organisational structure (Week 7), people (Week 8), organisational design (Week 9), and business operations (Week 10).
- The eReading list
- Moodle site provides example business reports

Assessment Due Date

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
