

MGMT20130 Operations Management and Business Analytics

Term 2 - 2018

Profile information current as at 25/04/2024 03:09 pm

All details in this unit profile for MGMT20130 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Operations management and business analytics explores the contemporary principles and practices involved in the management of both service and manufacturing operations. Taking a strategic approach to operations, you will examine fundamental concepts such as process planning, design, control and improvement; quality management and lean thinking; the role of the supply chain in modern operations; capacity and location principles as well as the use of project-based activities in an operational environment. You will examine and utilise data from a variety of organisational sources including financial, economic and market information as part of the analytical process leading to more effective operational decisions. The unit provides you with the opportunity to engage in independent research using theory-based, and research proven, practical approaches to the identification of workplace issues and problems and ability to generate and recommend viable solutions that enhance organisational effectiveness.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from 'Have Your Say'

"I think the unit coordinator has set the content and assessment style so precisely, for me it is perfect. I do not believe that there is any critical improvement required. However, this unit should offer some simulation exercise so the students can learn and understand more practically. Other than that, everything was good. I am thankful to Dr. Malcolm Johnson and Dr. Kevin Gould."

Recommendation

Maintain effort and continue introducing Australian examples of best practice companies.

Feedback from 'Have Your Say'

"Our class teacher and coordinator were wonderful. Zoom sessions from coordinator were very helpful."

Recommendation

Maintain quality of teaching team, processes, and with emphasis on student success.

Feedback from 'Have Your Say'

As a distant student, unit video tutorials were very helpful. I felt quite like sitting in actual classroom. very innovative. Assistant from the lecturer during assessments were really helpful. Really happy with the content and tutoring.

Recommendation

Student support through emails and recorded materials provides a good foundation for success.

Feedback from 'Have Your Say'

Feedback

This unit is really amazing in my personal opinion. It has provided me a wide range of new knowledge regarding operations and it is absolutely useful for me. I really like this unit.

Recommendation

The approach we use is to provide practical insight on how best-practice frameworks can boost operational performance. Continue using applying content to context.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Critically analyse and reflect on operations management and the role of operations managers within the organisation
2. Research and apply a systems approach to the management of operational functions
3. Develop an advanced and integrated understanding of the linkages between operations and other functions within the organisation
4. Demonstrate the ability to successfully use data from a variety of sources as part of the analytical process to identify and propose solutions to contentious workplace business problems
5. Develop a critical awareness of contemporary developments in operations management.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
