General Information

Overview

This unit examines the interrelated topics of personal and business ethics and business sustainability. It critically reviews the socio-cultural environment in which business operates and how this can change dramatically between countries and cities. Ethical frameworks for managerial decision-making are critiqued with reference to various stakeholder groups and you will examine the debates surrounding sustainable development as they impact on organisations in their local and global contexts. The interactions between personal ethics and how ethics is managed within an organisation are also considered. Technological, societal and cultural sources of ethical challenges are reviewed and cases will be discussed outlining how various organisations might respond to these challenges.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Teaching team as assessors of student submission.

Feedback

Lack of effectiveness of the individual essay to adequately convey understanding and application of ethical concepts.

Recommendation

The main recommendation is the removal of the essay and its replacement with a formal exam at the end of term. A second individual assessment task, a reflective essay, currently due at the end of term, will be redesigned to focus on the introductory topics and the due date will be brought forward to mid term so that students receive feedback during the term regarding their progress. A change unit proposal has been completed and approved by the Management and Innovation Discipline Group in October, 2018.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. investigate the interconnections between business ethics, sustainability and globalisation; and evaluate the differences between ethics, legal requirements and cultural factors in a business setting;

Assessment Tasks

1 Reflective Essay

Assessment Type

Reflective Practice Assignment

Task Description

The key aspect of reflection is a critical evaluation of the self. Students will undertake a number of in-class cases between weeks 2-6 and must use two (2) of the nominated cases as the basis for their self analysis, signed by the unit facilitator to verify they have been completed in class. The unit coordinator and or facilitator will then nominate which ones are to be used as part of the assessment.

Students will also complete at least 2 ethical diagnostic tools in class and must attach the results sheet as an appendix, signed by the unit facilitator to verify they have been completed.

The task is to analyse the decision made at the time, not to re-analyse the a case and come up with a new decision. Students are expected to look at the decision they made and using ethical theory classify the approach they took, or the justifications made. Students are to reflect on their decision by examining their assumptions about ethics, the purpose of business and the results of the diagnostic tools. Students are to provide a conclusion that considers whether or not they would change their decision, based on the ethical and moral theories discussed in class.

A detailed rubric and audio file are available on the Moodle site that provides further details for this assessment task. Refer to the unit Moodle site for further details.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (26 Apr 2019) 11:45 pm AEST

Students are to submit via the assessment folder in Moodle. Please note a late penalty of 5% per day applies for each day or part day (including weekends) for assignments submitted after the due date

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (10 May 2019)

Feedback will be provided via Feedback Studio

Weighting

Assessment Criteria

Students are required to:

Examine the decisions made from the two cases nominated by the unit coordinator or class facilitator, completed in class (signed and or verified by the lecturer)

Utilise and reflect on the results of a minimum of 2 diagnostic tools (results page signed by facilitator attached as appendices)

Discuss the decisions and analyse these referring to the diagnostic results and ethical theories and concepts.

Utilise key ethical and moral theories, concepts of moral personhood to describe and analyse their own positions or beliefs

Provide a reflection of why they made the original decision and whether they would adopt a different approach given the concepts studied in class.

The use of between 12-16 quality references that includes key readings and recommended texts, using APA referencing and including a reference list.

These are the minimum requirements. Students should note that satisfactorily meeting the minimum requirements will typically result in the minimum pass grade being awarded.

2 Group Presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation and Written Assessment

Task Description

All students will be allocated to a group by the facilitator and or unit coordinator in week 7 of term. These groups will be non-negotiable.

Students will undertake analysis of an organisation examining either its internal approach to the development of ethical culture, or its external engagement through corporate social responsibility or sustainability strategy. The specific task will be determined by the facilitator and unit coordinator in consultation with each group.

Each group will present as a team of consultants, such as KPMG, Ernst and Young etc., and assume that they have been hired by the organisation to conduct the analysis and present to the CEO and or Board of Directors.

Each group will be afforded 15-20 minutes to present and must submit an Executive Report of approximately 1000 words with a detailed reference list.

Please note that the presentation is a pass-fail activity. Each student must be in a group and present as part of that group.

Online students will upload a presentation (usually with a recorded audio) and executive report.

This is the minimum standard expected for this assignment. Students who only meet the minimum, should expect to receive the minimum pass grade.

As Masters students, you are required to engage in research as per the Australia Quality Framework (AQF) guidelines.

Two specific requirements need to be considered.

Students need to demonstrate "a body of knowledge that includes the understanding of recent developments in the discipline and/or area of professional practice, and demonstrate "knowledge of research principles and methods applicable to a field of work and/or learning".

Each topic in your course has a number of required weekly readings in terms of academic texts, journals and business publications that represent the appropriate body of knowledge and recent developments referred to by the AQF.

In order to demonstrate the ability to engage in appropriate research, students should read and utilise these texts and journals and publications, and as Masters students, indicate a willingness to research beyond this minimum standard through additional texts, journals and studies that demonstrate an ability to engage in independent research.

A detailed rubric and audio file is available in the Assessment folder below that provides further information regarding this assessment.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
