General Information

Overview

This unit offers a series of lectures and tutorials that will provide foundation skills and knowledge in contemporary business issues, and organisational and business practices. You will have the opportunity to develop business skills, gain knowledge of various business contexts, and examine the functions of a diverse range of organisations. You will assess the impact of environmental forces on organisations, examine risks confronting the organisation and discuss the practices adopted to overcome these, including innovation, e-commerce, knowledge management, and cross-cultural management. The unit will enable you to engage in discussions about the governance options for different types of organisations and discuss the contemporary processes of regionalisation, emerging new world markets, global governance and globalisation. This foundation unit will develop your business skills for potential future business consulting, and your management skills for organisational management roles.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Have Your Say

Students have indicated that application of theory and knowledge of the real business world using applied learning activities and assessments enhances learning opportunity in this unit.

Recommendation

Workshops and lectures should continue to focus on real world activities, case studies and examples in class. This can be supplemented with guest speakers from Australian industry, if feasible.

Feedback from Multiple

Feedback

Opportunities for positive student to staff and student to student relationships to be built into the unit in a virtual learning environment.

Recommendation

Opportunities for positive student to staff and student to student relationships continue to be built into the unit in face-to-face delivery and/or online delivery.
