General Information

Overview

Why do some organisations perform better than others and how can an organisation deliver the best return for their marketing investment? These are fundamental questions of marketing strategy and demand rigorous marketing planning. Marketing plans are used in organisations to outline various strategies to create, promote, and divest products and services. In this unit you will be fostering a strategic approach to marketing and then developing and reviewing a marketing plan. You will work closely with an identified and approved business or organisation of your choice. Various tools and techniques used in the development, implementation and review of marketing planning will be explored. The unit will enable you to recognise how product and service targets are set and achieved, analyse and translate the marketing environments, and deliver and review a strategic marketing plan.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Some students liked communicating with the unit coordinator through scheduled weekly Zoom workshops addressing weekly learning activities and to spend time discussing assessments.

Recommendation

Offer at least one weekly timetabled Zoom workshop to address the learning activities and to discuss assessments. All Zoom meetings will be recorded and uploaded to the unit Moodle website within 24 hours. This will help students who can't attend.

Feedback

Some students were receptive to the provision of assessment guidelines, marking rubrics, mark sheets and exemplars.

Recommendation

Provide students with additional assessment support in the form of assessment guidelines, marking rubrics, mark sheets and exemplars available through the unit Moodle site.
