

MRKT20055 Science of Consumer Behaviour

Term 1 - 2022

Profile information current as at 02/05/2024 05:01 pm

All details in this unit profile for MRKT20055 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Consumption is a universal phenomenon of human society, and understanding consumer behaviour is fundamentally critical to marketers and policymakers. This unit explores the science of consumer behaviour, an interdisciplinary field that integrates knowledge and discovery from marketing, psychology, anthropology, sociology, demography, and economics. In this unit you will examine models and frameworks of consumer decision making, as well as the impacts of internal and external factors on thoughts, feelings, and actions of consumers. Furthermore, you will learn to implement consumer behaviour principles to facilitate the development of successful marketing campaigns.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

Positive comments about the effective delivery of the unit contents, as well as the quality design of the assessments, by the teaching staff.

Recommendation

The teaching staff in the future offerings of this unit will be encouraged to keep delivering the unit contents in an effective, supportive, and engaging manner, and keep designing assessments that are highly practical and relevant to the real-world scenarios.

Students who participated in the online classes enjoyed the interactive activities/elements of the classes.

Recommendation

The teaching staff in the future offerings of this unit will be encouraged to create sufficient amount of opportunities for students to interact with the teaching staff and fellow students in classes, in ways that can benefit students' learning experiences.

Feedback from Staff self-reflection.

Feedback

New cases or examples have emerged through either industry or academic sources, which can be adopted to enrich the teaching and learning materials for this unit.

Recommendation

The teaching staff in the future offerings of this unit will ensure the teaching and learning materials for this unit be updated with latest cases and examples from both industry and academic sources.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Assess critical situational influences that shape consumer behaviour
2. Examine decision-process influences associated with consumer behaviour
3. Analyse the influences of internal and external factors on consumer behaviour
4. Use consumer behaviour principles to solve marketing problems
5. Identify new trends in consumer behaviour theories and applications.

2 Individual Presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

In this individual assessment, you will demonstrate your ability to bring the insights of high quality consumer behaviour research into practice.

First, please browse the following two research articles recently published in "Journal of Consumer Research", the best consumer behaviour journal in the world.

- Packard, G., & Berger, J. (2021). How concrete language shapes customer satisfaction. Journal of Consumer Research, 47(5), 787-806.
- Yan, D., & Sengupta, J. (2021). The effects of numerical divisibility on loneliness perceptions and consumer preferences. Journal of Consumer Research, 47(5), 755-771.

Your task is to choose one article from these two articles, present the empirical studies and findings of your chosen article, and apply these findings to an organisation of your choice. That is, you will find a real-world organisation, introduce the marketing or consumer behaviour issues this organisation is facing in 2022, and design corresponding recommendations to address the issues, based on the findings of your chosen article.

This presentation should be made between 3-6 minutes and through 6 PowerPoint slides. The slides should follow the subsequent structure:

- Student information and presentation title;
- The research article: empirical studies;
- The research article: findings;
- The organisation: issues;
- The organisation: recommendations;

- Reference list.

In the "Tap to add notes" section of each slide, please provide the corresponding script for that slide. Hence, in that section, you will need to write out or at least outline what you intend to say in your presentation for that slide.

Please pay attention to the following details on presentation and submission methods:

- On-campus students will deliver their presentation in class, and submit their PowerPoint file on Moodle.
- Distance education students will record their presentation through PowerPoint's "Record Slide Show" function, and submit their PowerPoint file (with recording) on Moodle.
- For all students, the Moodle submission of PowerPoint file will be due at 5pm AEST Friday Week 7. However, on-campus students may present in class during or after Week 7, depending on their local lecturer/tutor's scheduling.

3 Individual Written Assessment 2

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Renting a house can be a consumption decision subject to many competing influences. This assessment requires you to look at the rental property choices of 2 people, and provide your analysis on those factors leading to their decisions.

Firstly, please download the 3 survey questionnaires completed by 3 different respondents (these questionnaires will be posted on Moodle from Week 7). After reading through these questionnaires, please pick 2 questionnaires/respondents (you can pick any 2 you like) as the target for your analysis. You will notice that these questionnaires are mainly about making decisions among 4 different rental property options.

Secondly, please use the theoretical areas below to analyse the behaviour of your chosen respondents. Please explain the differences between their rankings of evaluative criteria and their choices of rental properties, using theories from:

- Personality
- Demographics (age, gender, family situation, income, ethnicity etc)

Lastly, please provide recommendations to the marketer of ONE of the rental property options featured in the survey questionnaires – what are the characteristics of her/his likeliest customers and how might she/he best attract them by applying the theories of learning and memory?

This assessment has a word limit of 1000-2000 and should be written as a formal business report. Your argument and analysis in this assessment requires theoretical support from a minimum of 10 journal article references.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Friday (3 June 2022) 5:00 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

As this unit has no exam, the formal results for this last piece of assessment can only be released to students on the Certification of Grades date (8 Jul 2022).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
