MUSC11409 Principal Music Studios 1
Term 1 - 2023

Profile information current as at 29/04/2024 06:43 am

All details in this unit profile for MUSC11409 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

While studying the Principal Music Studios series of units you will undertake a series of developmental practical music studies relating to your primary study area. In Principal Music Studios 1, you will engage in practical music studies in one instrument, voice or composition, focusing on foundation level repertoire and technical work. These practical studies will be underpinned by your ability to demonstrate personal and professional skills necessary for your profession, such as punctuality and preparedness for each of your lessons, consistent attendance and thorough personal practice, and a mature response to direction. You are expected to demonstrate cumulative levels of skill and knowledge through this series of units.

Assessment Grading
This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Principal Music Studios students studying via distance require some very specific equipment to facilitate the individual online lessons that are a requirement of this unit. This equipment will be invaluable to your experience in this unit and will suffice for all 6 units of Principal Music Studios. As there are very limited textbook requirements in CC41 Diploma of Music and CG51 Bachelor of Music, consider this equipment essential to your study in this course. Specific details of the required equipment can be found on the unit Moodle site.

Assessment Tasks

1 Artist Website

Assessment Type
Portfolio

Task Description
In this assessment task, you will use free website development software to design a website to begin to establish a professional online presence in your musical field of interest. Your website will showcase your work to a wider audience and provide information about you as a musician/teacher/producer/session musician/composer, your services, and allow for easy communication and booking.
Your website will contain the following:

1. Home page - A welcoming and visually appealing homepage that showcases your work. This page could include photos, videos, testimonials, and a brief introduction to your services.
2. About page - An in-depth profile including your background, experience, achievements, and philosophy. This section should include your bio and a detailed CV.
3. Services page - A clear and detailed description of the services you offer, such as music lessons, performance opportunities, commissioned works and event bookings.
4. Portfolio page - A collection of your past work, which could including recordings, videos, and photos of past performances, lyrics or composition portfolios.
5. Contact page - Include a clear and accessible way for potential clients or students to contact the musician or teacher for more information or to book their services. This page should also include your accurate contact information, such as email address, phone number, and social media links. Integrate the website with your social media accounts to promote your work and connect with potential clients or students.
6. Responsive design - The website should be optimised for viewing on all devices, including desktop computers, laptops, tablets, and smartphones.
7. Design attributes - Reflect your unique brand and style throughout the design and content of the website, through imagery, colour themes and font selection.

Assessment Criteria
You will be assessed on a combination of criteria relating to the development of your website, subject to area of interest. Your website may include the assessment of some or all of these criteria:

1. User-friendly interface - Website is easy to navigate and provides a positive user experience
2. Responsive design - Website is optimised for viewing on multiple devices, including desktop, tablet, and mobile
3. High-quality images and video - Website showcases your work through eye-catching and professional images and video
4. Portfolio - Website provides a comprehensive portfolio of your work, including audio and video samples performances, or other relevant media.
5. Information on services - Website provides detailed information on the types of services offered (solo, session work, teaching, commissions/compositions, workshops etc.)

6. Contact information - Website should provide a clear and accessible way for interested clients/event organisers/promoters etc. to contact you for more information or to book your services
7. Social media integration - Website should be integrated with your social media accounts (where possible), making it easy to share updates and connect with potential clients and other industry professionals
8. Marketing and branding - Website should reflect your unique brand and style, and should be designed to effectively promote your services and image.

3 Repertoire Assessment

Assessment Type
Practical Assessment

Task Description
This assessment item facilitates the development of individual musicianship, repertoire and performance skills through the preparation and presentation of a repertoire assessment. The purpose of this repertoire assessment is to demonstrate artistic and musical interpretations of repertoire relating to your primary instrument and relevant to your genre of study.
Students are required to perform a repertoire test from a defined list of pieces, relative to each instrument and genre. The exact specifications of this list are determined by each individual tutor and student, in consultation with the Unit Coordinator, with approved repertoire lists communicated individually to each student. Requirements of this task include that students must:

- The repertoire assessment consists of a performance of not more than 5 pieces, not longer than 30mins.
  Note: A movement is considered one piece.
- The program should demonstrate a variety of styles and tempo.
- The program is to be chosen in consultation with your tutor to ensure an appropriate level of difficulty is attempted.
- The approved repertoire list cannot be modified without the consultation of the tutor and Unit Coordinator.
  Note: Any deviation from the approved repertoire list will result in a fail for any unauthorised piece/s.

Submission Details (Mackay)
Repertoire assessments for on-campus students are delivered face-to-face during the standard examination weeks.
Submission Details (Online)
Students studying online have a choice of the following submission methods for the repertoire assessment:
Option A

- A scheduled online repertoire assessment with your tutor present, delivered on the video-conferencing platform used for lessons, adhering to the following conditions:
  - Students requiring a scheduled repertoire assessment on a video conferencing platform must notify the Unit Coordinator (j.smyth-tomkins@cqu.edu.au) in writing by Friday of Week 5.

Option B
A video recording of your repertoire assessment, completed at a time of your choosing, adhering to the following conditions:
- The video recording of your repertoire test must contain ALL of the required repertoire in one unedited take
- The audio on your recording must contain a dry channel sound, containing no editing or enhancements (reverb, compression etc.)
- If using an accompanist, ensure the sound of both your instrument/voice and accompanist are audible
- If using backing tracks, ensure the sound of both your instrument/voice and the track are audible.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?
A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?
A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?
For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest
If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help
If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work
Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
