MUSC12416 Studio Teaching Methods 1
Term 1 - 2022

All details in this unit profile for MUSC12416 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will study the fundamental theoretical and practical aspects of effective studio teaching in music for the beginner student. You will gain knowledge and skills in a number of internationally recognised music teaching philosophies and methods including those developed by Suzuki, Orff and Kodaly. You will also gain an understanding of core principles underpinning the studio teaching business industry. This includes developing a studio teaching business plan and associated risk analysis, as well as exploring current technologies that relate to marketing and promoting a music studio teaching business.

Assessment Grading
This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

2 Lesson Portfolio

Assessment Type
Written Assessment

Task Description
Task:
You will articulate your knowledge and application of a specific teaching method and develop a series of lesson plans for a beginner student in your chosen area of focus in the one-to-one studio teaching environment.
Length: 2000 words
Prepare a portfolio of lesson plans suitable for a beginner student in their first year of study.

- You may focus on any instrument or voice, and any age group.
- State the teaching methodology chosen (Suzuki, Orff, Kodaly or Dalcroze).
- Give the intended age of the beginner student at the start of the assignment.

Possible scenarios:

- Learning the notes of an instrument
- Reading basic rhythms
- Teaching basic instrumental/vocal techniques
- Learning repertoire

This portfolio will consist of two parts:
Part 1: Five lesson plans

- Create five different lessons suitable for a beginner student in their first year of study using a chosen teaching methodology. (lesson duration 30 minutes)
- For each lesson, develop a template that articulates the lesson layout/schedule. (Examples found on moodle site)
- The lesson plans should articulate the lesson format. This may include activity titles, learning objectives, resources/materials, lesson outline information.
- Include any teaching resources/materials/activities as an Appendix.

Part 2: Written Justification

- For each lesson provide an explanation of the challenges that the student will face when learning the material/concepts and a discussion on how to meet those challenges.
- Justify the choice in material used in the lesson (exercises/concepts/musical pieces) in relation to the chosen methodology
- Give a justification for the methodology chosen in terms of the musical development of the student and their continued motivation as a music student and performer.
- To support your justification, you must refer to published books or journal articles on these topics. This will involve some direct quotations as well as information that you paraphrase into your own words. Always use in-text references and include these in your reference list.

Assignment format:

- Use 12 point Times New Roman font for the body of the essay.
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- You may use sub-headings if you wish to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour or different size font.
- Include in-text references (citations) throughout the assignment.
- Include a Reference List at the end of the assignment in APA style, 7th edition.
  - You should have a minimum of 10 references for this assignment
  - Do NOT cite from Wikipedia or other websites that do not have an acknowledged author.
  - Include in your reference list all music scores used, media, Youtube sources, as well as books, academic journal articles, and articles from Oxford Music Online.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?
A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?
A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?
For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest
If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help
If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work
Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
