Term 2 - 2022

Profile information current as at 05/05/2024 04:46 pm

All details in this unit profile for MUSC12421 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this second intermediate-level unit, together with your continued refinement of the process of integrating song, speech and movement, you will further synthesize your music theory, aural musicianship and piano keyboard for your development as a music theatre singer. As you further enhance your singing technique, you will explore the phonetic aspects of the Spanish and Singaporean languages through selected songs and vocal exercises. The unit integrates your learning of singing with music theory, aural musicianship and piano keyboard, covering intermediate concepts of pitch, harmony, rhythm, pulse, tempo, articulation and expression to extend your technical and artistic development.

Term Specific Information

As the first of the third year advanced units, you will undertake activities that will integrate the various elements of your music theatre craft. At this level, a greater degree of insight and personal reflection, as evidenced through practice, is expected. You will continue to develop your skills in singing and character development through the intertwined possibilities and choices dictated by movement as a unified expression of characterisation. You will study detailed aspects vocal technique in your development as a music theatre singer with an advanced exploration of music theatre vocal repertoire. As part of your singing technique, you will explore the phonetic aspects of the German and Samoan languages in selected repertoire. Your technical skills will be extended through more advanced levels of music theory, including aspects of song-writing and arranging, aural musicianship and piano keyboard for your development as a music theatre singer.

Unit Coordinator: Nicole Thomson (Voice/Sight-Singing/Aural/Languages)

Assessment Tasks

1 Practical Voice Assessment

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

Technical Assessment:

#1 - Foreign-Language Song

You will perform a song from the Torres Strait Islands - 'Sesere eeye'.

This piece involves body percussion and accompanying harmonies. This piece will be performed with all choreography and from memory, in a group context.

You may be allocated a melody or a harmony part. The assessment remains the same regardless of allocation.

Assessment:

Sing your designated part as part of a three part arrangement. Your aim is to accurately pronounce the Torres Strait Islander language and express the narrative of the storyline appropriately.

#2 - Technical Exercise - Sustaining a vocal harmony

You will be provided with a vocal arrangement of Sesere eeye, the foreign language piece you are studying.

You will be required to prepare one of two designated harmony parts.

Assessment:

Sing your designated part as part of a three part arrangement. Your aim is to maintain your allocated harmonic line throughout.

#3 - Folk Song - She Moved Through The Fair

The Irish Folk Song, 'She Moved Through The Fair', is to be sung unaccompanied. No starting note will be provided.

All four verses must be sung from memory with careful attention being paid to rhythm, pitch, phrasing and lyrics. Vocal embellishments will be expected as per the folk style.

Assessment:

Sing 'She Moved Through The Fair' in full from memory. Your aim is to accurately interpret the style of the piece, express the emotion of the song appropriately, whilst maintaining pitch and rhythm.

Repertoire Assessment (Closed Exam):

You will be required to complete a practical singing assessment consisting of the following:

- The program should demonstrate a choice of 4 works covering the different genres available throughout the history of 20th and 21st century music theatre with a total performance time of no longer than 18 minutes.
- The genres to be represented are as follows:
 - - pre-1950s (including operetta)
 - - legitimate (Golden Era) 1950-1965 approx
 - - pre-2000s (MUST be composed by Stephen Sondheim)
 - - post-2000s (contemporary)
- One piece must be a 'Song & Dance' with planned choreography throughout the performance
- The program should show a variety of styles and tempos, and be sung entirely from memory.
- The program is to be chosen in consultation with your teacher to ensure an appropriate level of difficulty is attempted.
- Program notes for the performance exam must be submitted at the time of the vocal exam. These should include a song analysis of each piece, and a history of the work, composers and character. They should be a minimum of 200 words for each piece of music that you are performing.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
