General Information

Overview

In this unit you will be introduced to primary health care as a philosophy, organising framework and way of working with people and communities. You will gain an understanding of the role of the primary health care nurse working in the community. You will examine the role of primary health care in the Australian health care system and be introduced to social determinants of health. The impact of social determinants and health literacy on health outcomes will be investigated. You will have the opportunity to explain the significance of immunisation for the community and your responsibility as a nursing student in relation to immunisation.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE data 2022, T2

Feedback

Maybe get onto the assignment instructions and tutorials earlier as they are very time consuming especially with other essay writing for other units

Recommendation

Unit coordinators will provide all assignment information in a timely manner to enable students sufficient time to plan and prepare.

Feedback from SUTE data 2022, T2

Feedback

I hope that it can be ensured that marker's write more appropriate comments on a student's paper and what a student did right or wrong

Recommendation

The unit coordinators will work more closely with all markers, and ensure that the expert moderation process is followed. A range of support resources will be provided to all markers including a Zoom session outlining assessment requirements, expected student responses and marking criteria. Unit coordinators will moderate a range of each marker's papers, and will intervene early if any issues of concern noted.

Feedback

Trish and Ade are both wonderful. Made learning easy. Thoroughly enjoyed the unit.

Recommendation

Unit coordinators will continue to strive to provide students with the highest level of support and teaching quality.
