General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will study the stages and milestones of the lifespan and consider the implications of life stages on health and end of life experiences. The uniqueness of people's experiences as they reach milestones will be considered in developing person-centred care. You will have the opportunity to reflect on end of life experiences and the impact this may have on the person, their significant others and yourself as a health professional.

Offerings For Term 3 - 2024

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

Microsoft Teams was an added bonus. Unit Coordinators made weekly announcements/contact to keep us on track and let everyone know what was on that week (e.g. assessment, tutorials & PASS sessions). I never felt 'lost' with the weekly content.

Recommendation

Continue to utilise Microsoft Teams to communicate with students, facilitate discussion, answer questions and provide timely updates.

Feedback from Staff feedback

Feedback

Online weekly Zoom sessions were not recorded. Students who attended the online sessions felt more comfortable and were willing to engage. Students who were unable to attend the online sessions were concerned that they missed out on important information.

Recommendation

Consider alternate strategies to facilitate learning for students who are unable to attend online sessions.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

I loved that there was a zoom session offered in the evening so that many of us with daytime commitments were able to attend.

Recommendation

Continue to offer online sessions at varied times to cater to student needs.
