OCCT13007 Enabling Mental Health
Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 27/12/2024 02:33 pm

General Information

Overview
This unit provides an in-depth exploration of the roles of occupational therapists working in contemporary mental health service provision for youth, adults and older people. You will be introduced to the use of client-centred assessments and interventions to understand the factors that influence occupational functioning when mental health issues are present. Occupational therapy service delivery will be considered within the context of overarching mental health policies, legislation, standards, recovery principles and ethical issues.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses
Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE teacher evaluations and unit evaluations.
Feedback
The homework tasks in the self-directed study weeks are essential to augment learning, but some students indicated they would benefit from workshopping some of the questions in the Zoom drop-in sessions.

Recommendation
It is recommended that consideration be given to allowing time in the Zoom drop-ins to address some of that week's Moodle activities or reflect on the previous week's answers.
