General Information

Overview

As an educator in a tertiary or adult learning environment, you will consider the crucial role that assessment has on student learning. You will draw on scholarly literature to support your evidence-based decision making. This unit draws on best practice assessment methods that utilise technology, including artificial intelligence. You will examine a range of assessment strategies and be able to determine fit-for-purpose assessment to meet your contextual needs and align with taught content.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).
