ORAL12004 Advanced Oral Health Practice Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 09/05/2024 03:01 am

All details in this unit profile for ORAL12004 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will study the current approaches to periodontics, orthodontics, and prosthodontics used by oral health therapists. You will translate and integrate this knowledge into skills throughout pre-clinical practice. On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to demonstrate clinical judgment and practical skills in periodontics, including implant maintenance, orthodontics, and prosthodontics. You will be knowledgeable on your role in intra- and inter-professional practice and will be able to communicate information in oral and written forms utilising appropriate interpersonal and team communication skills, professional attitudes and ethical behaviours.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Unit Teaching Evaluation and teaching team discussions

Feedback

Students enjoyed the orthodontic and prosthodontic intensive mid-term. However, some orthodontic practical sessions were rushed.

Recommendation

It is recommended to deliver the practical component of orthodontics and prosthodontics in this format with a review of timings.

Feedback from Student Unit Teaching Evaluation, Informal feedback

Feedback

Positive feedback was received about exploring the role of the oral health therapist in different types of practice.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue to explore opportunities to develop interprofessional practice content in this unit.
