Term 1 - 2019

Profile information current as at 02/05/2024 08:35 pm

All details in this unit profile for PERF20037 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit provides you with the opportunity to develop a specialised, discipline-specific or interdisciplinary project in the creative and professional industries at postgraduate level. This unit works with Creative and Professional Project 1 to allow you to deliver a significant single project outcome across these two units. This unit is comprised of practice, content and scholarly approaches negotiated between you and the teaching staff in order to develop a project appropriate to your creative and scholarly interests that responds to the current trends and contexts of your chosen field. Using creative practice techniques, project-based learning and applied professional practice, you will create a project outcome aligned with your career and future aspirations.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from self-reflection; student feedback

Feedback

Maintain the teaching support for distance and campus students provided through regular zoom sessions

Recommendation

Continue to informally schedule fortnightly zoom sessions to provide structured support for students without relying on only individual communication.

Feedback from student feedback

Feedback

Consider shifting the due date for the first assessment task to provide more time.

Recommendation

Provide clarity in the assessment task information as to the reasoning for the due date, and also seek feedback from students in Term 2, 2018 about assessment 1.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Identify and assess the skills acquired and processes involved in the investigation of creative or professional practice in an advanced level practice-based creative or professional project
2. Produce a creative artefact or professional project that has relevance to the broader creative and professional industries
3. Evaluate and evidence the process and outcomes of this project using creative and professional industries evaluation terms.

Assessment Tasks

1 Presentation - Project Design

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

You are required to deliver a 5 – 7 minute presentation to pitch your project proposal. This presentation will be recorded and digitally submitted online. This is designed to provide an interim update on your proposed project, your progress, and your creative or professional output/s. This assessment should show evidence of your creative or professional practice. It should also showcase your project management skills. This presentation should cover: project aims, project timeline (including progress to date), resources required to complete the project, and some evidence of the creative/professional practice.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
