General Information

Overview

Within your role as a paramedic, you will encounter consumers experiencing many differing forms of mental health challenges that affect their presentation and recovery. During this unit, you will develop communication skills (including the ability to actively listen to consumer and family stories), recognise alterations in mental health as well as gain knowledge of therapeutic options and referral pathways available to assist consumers.

- Mixed Mode

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student and Unit Teaching Evaluation

Feedback

Poster presentation marking criteria was unclear and difficult to understand what was required in that section at times.

Recommendation

Poster presentation marking guide will be reviewed and improved to ensure that the response required is clear. More criterions will be included to make the assessment requirements clear.

Feedback from Student and Unit Teaching Evaluation

Feedback

Students enjoyed the residential school with the actor involvement and realistic scenarios. Students also enjoyed the structure and clear expectations of residential school.

Recommendation

Residential schools will continue to be presented in a realistic way with actor involvement where there is availability. Residential school will continue to keep a structure and provide information on the requirements for the assessments.

Feedback from Student and Unit Teaching Evaluation

Feedback

Students enjoyed the content delivered throughout the weeks but at times could be discussed more concisely.

Recommendation

Some lectures will be recorded again to ensure that the delivery is more concise. Some content was filmed during staff sickness and will be executed better for next delivery.

Feedback from Student and Unit Teaching Evaluation

Feedback

Students felt the tools and guidance given to them were helpful for their development and made the content easy to understand.

Recommendation

Tools and guidance will continue to be given to students while looking for other teaching methods that will allow more students to understand the necessary concepts.

Feedback from Self reflection

Feedback

The Moodle site at times was not clear and needed extra clarification.

Recommendation

The Moodle site will be reviewed and updated to make sure that all information is clear for the student.
